THE PREVIEW

“And they shall bring all your brethren for an offering unto the LORD out of all nations upon horses, and in chariots, and in litters, and upon mules, and upon swift beasts, to my holy mountain Jerusalem, saith the LORD, as the children of Israel bring an offering in a clean vessel into the house of the LORD. And I will also take of them for priests and for Levites, saith the LORD. For as the new heavens and the new earth, which I will make, shall remain before me, saith the LORD, so shall your seed and your name remain. And it shall come to pass, that from one new moon to another, and from one Sabbath to another, shall all flesh come to worship before me, saith the LORD. And they shall go forth, and look upon the carcasses of the men that have transgressed against me: for their worm shall not die, neither shall their fire be quenched; and they shall be an abhorring unto all flesh.”

The many verses listed in the Old Testament that PROVED Jesus was supposed to have come as a conquering king. Nevertheless, the outcome was kept secret from the foundation of the world. (Matthew 13:35)

A new, different and conducive governance and economic system for a perfect king to rule in a sinful world.

What Sabbath to Sabbath and new moon to new moon meant in Isaiah 66:23?

How Isaiah 66:20-24 pointed to what would have happened if Jesus Christ didn't die.

The two decision pathways that were laid out before Israel: Accept or reject Jesus Christ as the Messiah; the king of the Jews.

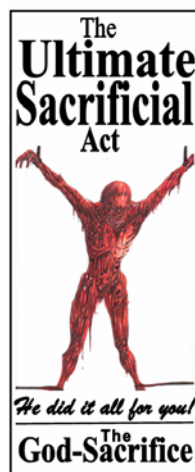

Just the thought of GOD! bending so low; unbelievably low; “stink-animal-stable-status” low; to become one like us is STAGGERING!

Praise God for His awesome love and humility! He could have ended us and started something new. (He was sorry for creating man. Genesis 6:5-7) But instead, He decided to leave His glorious home, entered this sinful sewer, extend His open loving arms to reach out to those of us who want deliverance out of this filthy doom place. Which one of us would have entered our sewer or septic tank, searching for a penny that fell to the bottom of this awfully stink and filthy pit, filled, over our heads, with feces, scavenger insects (like cockroaches) and eating bacteria? Think of what GOD had to do when comparing man with this vast universe He created.

Little did the people know and understand (and at that time, all Jews including John the Baptist [Luke 7:18-24] and the other disciples), what Jesus really came to the earth to do? Old Testament Scripture showed (and provided many verses) where He was coming as a conquering king. This was what everyone was thinking. But as we read the New Testament (which was then not yet available), we discovered that He indeed came to conquer; but, first and foremost, He came to conquer sin; then death; afterwards, His enemies; all of them before reigning as a conquering King of the Universe. He came to die first; to shed His blood for the remission of sins: to pay our sin debt; afterwards, to conquer death by dying and raising from the dead...

- INTRODUCTION -

The preparation and transformation to a pure and ideal law-abiding economic system for Jesus (a perfect king to rule in a sinful world) to begin His reign was now coming together.
(Isaiah 40:3-5, Luke 3:4-6)

Israel's failing economy that was caused by all the miracles Jesus was doing and the message He was proclaiming?

Judas Iscariot was not the only one experiencing significant loss of revenue because of all the miracles Jesus was doing (from his business investments made before following Jesus); many others, were as well. The physicians and the undertakers (body-preparers and grave-diggers) were the first ones feeling the downturn in income and it all trickled down affecting many other business persons. Everyone (businesses and personal enterprises) that shared in the profits from proceeds earned were beginning to experience losses. Their employees started looking for other jobs because Jesus was healing so many people and it was all for free.

Multitudes of people flocked to Jesus for healing. This was so serious it began affecting the entire nation of Israel's buying and selling economic system. Many businesses failed because persons were no longer going to them but instead to Jesus for complete healing even if it meant many days of traveling.

Additionally, many who were healed and were once business professionals had then reentered the business market creating crowded competition in a failing economy.

People also found out that taking their sick loved ones to Jesus was no longer necessary; the only requirement was that a family member or friend who was in excellent health, make the journey and request Jesus to heal the person. The healing was done instantly and over great distances. This created far-reaching losses in the taxi (animal rental and traveling services) businesses.

Deaths drastically declined to almost zero and visits to or from doctors had ended. There were hardly any more deaths occurring because the people were healed from sickness and terminal diseases. People got their healing at no charge; no money was required; just a sincere, legitimate need was all that was necessary. This brought about a death blow on the livelihood of persons and businesses that relied heavily on the sick and the dead; many of them with nothing else to depend on or turn to, went out of business (went bankrupt).

Care-givers and care-taking Inns (hospital) revenue fell to zero and owners, operators and staff members were all out of work; unemployment begin rising in Israel. The markets all felt the reduction in earnings; all because of the healing Jesus was doing and it was free; it created an off-balance buying and selling crisis in Israel.

Business professionals eventually began seriously complaining to the leaders and elders of the people about this; not for Jesus to start charging a fee for the healing to maintain the economic buying and selling balance (because this would have caused Him to monopolize the market and instantly become very wealthy; making all the money); but, for Him to, "stop! healing people, completely!"

(Read, Matthew 8:16, 9:35, 12:15, 14:14, along with verses 35-36, 15:30-31, 19:1-2, 21:14; Mark 1:32-34, as well as verse 45, 6:13, 6:55-56; Luke 4:40-41, 5:15, 6:17-19, also verses 21-22, 9:6, including verse 11; John 2:23 and 21:25.)

Old age ailments were also healed causing sufferers not to seek alternative healing remedies from herbalists. The economic trickle effects were happening in every sector and city of Israel. (For example: Granny Miriam got complete healing of old age ailments from Jesus and therefore her greedy grandsons could no longer get the inherited fortune owned by her and her late husband. As a result, their purchase plans for several lavish homes had to be scrapped. They were not very happy with her healing and what Jesus caused.)

Many such healing, like this one, occurred throughout Israel causing great contention among covetous family members. They hated Jesus for what He was doing: "all of this healing," they grumbled. Old disgusting and miserable employers and parents whose hateful dependants were patiently waiting for the joy of seeing them dead, return to their place youthfully rejuvenated with the looks of apparent years of more energy to continue doing what they did. Professionals, who had an evil exploitation motive for accumulating wealth, felt the impact of Jesus' healing. Many of these disgruntled individuals complained to the authorities about this and the damage it was causing on their livelihood and jobs. The leaders were bombarded with such annoyance from the people.

The smiths, silversmiths, carpenters and craftsmen lost huge amount of revenue all because of Jesus' message and promotion of His Father. (Most of the people had vowed to themselves that the one who can heal their serious illness, they will worship that person or that person's God. Many of them were lepers, the blind, deaf, lame, maim, victims of devils, the sick; their family members, friends, the healing eye-witnessing bystanders, etc.)

Therefore, people who brought shrines and images of idols, begin believing and worshipping Jesus and His Father as God. As a result, piles of images were destroyed and burnt leaving merchants with loads of unsold inventory; they were hopelessly dismayed and angry like Demetrius in Acts 19:24-28, of the big financial losses to their business.

In addition to all of this, soothsaying businesses that brought in lots of profits like the one mentioned in Acts 16:16, closed down. Soothsaying, selling idol images and relics were big business and brought in lots of money until Jesus came on the scene (or in town) with His miracles and message. Jesus promoted His Father as God and their business sales operation plummet; sharply declining or "nose-diving," so to speak.

Many demons were cast out of persons causing soothsayers, fortune-telling merchants, etc., and their business to come to a sudden halt. Lucifer's demonic strongholds among the people were seriously being dismantled; rapidly placing an end to it all; his kingdom was coming to an end because of what Jesus was doing. (Besides this, because of what Zechariah 13:2-4 said, Satan, knowing scripture, was very much afraid of this happening.)

The economic blow to the entire nation of Israel was seriously felt by many similar stories like the ones just mentioned above.

Nevertheless, at the time, little was known that all of this disruption of the natural commercial flow of things being seriously altered because of what Jesus was doing, were just simply the preparation and transformation of the old buying and selling, economic system to one that was new, different and conducive for a perfect king to rule in a sinful world. (Isaiah 40:3-5, Luke 3:4-6)

1 Understanding a perfect King (Jesus Christ), ruling in a sinful world

¹Imagine what would have happened if Jesus did not suffer and die. Imagine the nation of Israel ruled by Jesus Christ instead of sinful kings, prophets, judges or people who have all proven to be failures; who are all sinners and failed every time. Imagine a perfect human ruling in a sinful world.

²Below is a short preview from the Bible on how it would have all played out.

Isaiah 66:20-24 says: “And they shall bring all your brethren for an offering unto the LORD out of all nations upon horses, and in chariots, and in litters, and upon mules, and upon swift beasts, to my holy mountain Jerusalem, saith the LORD, as the children of Israel bring an offering in a clean vessel into the house of the LORD. And I will also take of them for priests and for Levites, saith the LORD. For as the new heavens and the new earth, which I will make, shall remain before me, saith the LORD, so shall your seed and your name remain. ²³And it shall come to pass, that from one new moon to another, and from one Sabbath to another, shall all flesh come to worship before me, saith the LORD. ²⁴And they shall go forth, and look upon the carcasses of the men that have transgressed against me: for their worm shall not die, neither shall their fire be quenched; and they shall be an abhorring unto all flesh.”

³There are those who claimed that because Isaiah 66:23 said, “...from one Sabbath to another...,” in heaven (or during the “one-thousand-year Millennium reign” with Christ) all believers will come to worship before Him on this day. Therefore, according to them, this is proof or strong evidence that the Sabbath day will be ongoing even when we get to heaven; thus, they say, it is confirmation that this day was honored and specially set aside for worship by God.

⁴Certainly, there are Bible verses that point to the “one thousand years” reign with Christ, and the Sabbath day of rest, but Isaiah 66:20-24 (also, many others) is NOT one of them. (For more information on this, log on to www.apublicviewing.com and click on the document called, Sabbath Day or Sunday? Which day to worship? Go to [P54-55]).

⁵If we examine Isaiah 66:23 and others surrounding it by taking them all at face value, we will discover some very thought-provoking facts when comparing them to New Testament verses.

⁶Firstly, burnt offerings and sacrifices will be ongoing according to the above text. Therefore, if we were to take this text at face value, then what Jesus did at the cross was not complete. There are other related texts found (for example: Isaiah 56:6-7, Ezekiel 46:1-15 and Zechariah 14:16-21) to prove this. However, at face value, they all contradict Hebrews 10:5, 8, 12 and 26-27; this was simply because all blood sacrifices for sin ended at the cross. What was the offering or what is meant by “an offering” in Isaiah 66:20? The book of Leviticus answered this question: Burnt, meat, peace and sin offerings, wave, heave, drink and trespass offerings, freewill offerings, jealousy offerings, offerings of silver and brass, etc. All of them (with exception to the silver and brass offerings and where fruits are involved) required blood sacrifice with animals; primarily for the forgiveness of sins committed by the people.

⁷Secondly, the Levitical priesthood in the verses above will continue. But instead of Jewish Levites, God will resume the part or functions of the priest. At face value, this contradicts Hebrews 7:11-12, 26-27 where it shows that the Levitical priesthood structure will end or change. After Jesus’ sacrifice, there was no longer a need for the Levitical priesthood.

⁸Thirdly, there will be ongoing deaths during the process towards all persons who transgress against God and all living will see their dead bodies; this episode will extend even throughout eternity. This contradicts Revelation 21:4 if taken at face value where it said: “...there shall be no more death...”

⁹Fourthly, night and day will continue throughout eternity because according to the text, there will be seven days per week (“from one Sabbath to another”) and approximately, 30 days per month (from “one new moon to another”); all flesh (nations and people) will come to Jerusalem to continuously worship the Lord every day (night and day) throughout eternity. The moon gives light at night;

therefore, night-time will continue. Again, this contradicts Isaiah 60:19-20 and Revelation 22:5 if taken at face value where it says, “there shall be no night there” (and figuratively mentioned in Rev. 7:15). Read below for further information on this.

So then, what does Isaiah 66:20-24 mean if at face value the verses contradict New Testament texts?

¹⁰In the Old Testament there were two pathways laid out before Israel and they had to collectively decide which pathway to take: these pathways were blessings or cursing. Attached to both pathways were guidelines on what will happen to them if either of the pathways were chosen: the pathway of blessings if Israel abides by very specific set of rules and the pathway of cursing if they disobeyed those rules. (Deuteronomy 28:1-68) We all know the pathway Israel took and the rest was history.

¹¹Because the New Testament was not yet written when Jesus was born, the Old Testament gave another two, very interesting (twist or picture) pathways of events. They were: What was to happen if Israel embraced the Messiah (Jesus Christ) as their King? Interestingly, it allegorized events (kept them secret) that were to occur if they rejected and killed Him. (1 Corinthians 2:7-8) The Old Testament showed us what was to happen if Jesus Christ (the Messiah) had lived and reigned King of Israel and shortly afterwards, the world. But the New Testament showed us the outcome: What actually happened after He was rejected and killed.

¹²Many scripture verses between Isaiah and Malachi were written with a VIEW that Jesus Christ was to come and reign as a conquering King on earth (in Israel first, then afterwards, the world) and not die a painful death. (An exception to this was Isaiah 53:1-12, Daniel 9:24-27 and Zech. 12:9-14.) This VIEW became the “key” that unlocked the doors of many difficult passages of scripture in the Old Testament on how His first Messianic mission would have unfolded or all played out had they made Him King and He accepted the position.

¹³Unfortunately, for all those living when Jesus began His ministry, because He was not building an army of comrades like David did when he fled from Saul (He chose just a small bunch of uneducated men) they rejected the fact that He was the Messiah who was to become King and rule over them.

Little did the people know and understood (and at that time, all Jews including John the Baptist [Luke 7:18-24], and the other disciples) what Jesus really came to the earth to do? Old Testament Scripture showed (and provided many verses) where He was coming as a conquering king. This was what everyone was thinking. But as we read the New Testament (which was then not yet available at the time), we discovered that He indeed came to conquer; but, first and foremost, He came to conquer sin; then death; afterwards, His enemies; all of them before reigning as a conquering King of the earth. He came to die first; to shed His blood for the remission of sins: to pay our sin debt; afterwards, to conquer death by dying and raising from the dead...

¹⁴Below is a summarized narrative of what would have happened (according to many Old Testament scripture verses) if Jesus was made King of the Jews and afterwards, the world; or if He had lived and not die. Just before reading this narrative, keep in mind of what Jesus said at John 10:17-18: He could not die at the hands of man. It was only when He allowed (commend or gave up) His Spirit to leave His body was when His body died; otherwise, man could not kill Him. (Luke 23:46) Furthermore, the “wages of sin” law (Romans 6:23) could not affect Him because He was sinless. Therefore, if He did not allow death to temporarily end His life, man (or death) would have never been able to kill Him (or take His life); He would have been alive even today.

¹⁵Therefore, Isaiah 66:20-24 (see above and many other verses listed below) pointed to: What would have happened if Jesus did not die and was made King of Israel and afterwards, the world?

Imagine, A Perfect King Ruling In A Sinful World!

Imagine what would have happened if Jesus did not suffer and die. Imagine the nation of Israel ruled by Jesus Christ instead of sinful kings, prophets, judges or people who have all proven to be failures; who are all sinners and failed every time. Imagine a perfect human ruling in a sinful world. Anyone “stepping out of line” will be destroyed according to the law. All laws will be carried out perfectly and forever. Humans will have to “stay in line” or die. All blessings mentioned in Deuteronomy 28:1-68 would come to pass; the cursing will all disappear.

What would happen when loved ones die? Jesus would then raise them from death. Dead loved ones would raise again including Old Testament saints who have been dead for many years and were obedient to God’s charges. (They walked in His statutes and kept His judgments, commandments and testimonies. Unfortunately, though, they would have all been raised in the old bodies they died in; it would not have been a glorified body; it would have remained mortal and not be upgraded to immortality.)

Outposts around the world would be set up to accommodate all sickness and diseases; they will all disappear including old age; all that would be required is to look, touch, eat, drink, go-to, etc., for the healing. (Ezekiel 47:1-9) All lost persons would be found; all courtrooms will disappear except one; no further need of doctors neither lawyers (nor their business spin-offs); their professions will disappear. All mysteries will be solved; all animals will be friendly: the lion and lamb will enjoy each other and play together. (Is. 11:1-12)

All bad habits will be corrected; all broken bones and missing limbs will be restored; all blind and deaf persons will have their sight and hearing restored. (Isaiah 29:18, 35:5-6) All mentally challenged persons will have their mental problems corrected. Violence and murders around the world would be heard of no more (Isaiah 60:18); perpetrators will be found and destroyed. Banks will no longer exist including risk deals (insurance companies) and caretaking inns (hospital); they all will disappear. Those who became wealthy by godly means, retained all of their wealth; and those who acquired them by ungodly ways, lost everything. All corruption will be exposed; no more dirty or sinful secrets; no more hiding; no more false religion; and on and on and on. (Many of the above events already began taking shape that angered the leaders of the people. Jesus’ message and miracles began crippling their esteemed reputations, business investments and financial returns.)

Obviously, Satan and his warlords were not sure whether they could have operated in this type of environment where everyone will be taught perfect skills and techniques to resist devils and therefore conquer them or face judgment. (Zechariah 13:2) People will be taught perfect faith that moved mountains and be given tremendous miraculous abilities. (Definitely, Luke 9:1-2, 10:17-20, John 14:12 greatly agitated Satan and his evil warlords. Certainly, after all of what Jesus was doing, they all had to have agreed, this had to be quickly stopped.)

In Isaiah 66:20-24 (and many other verses), God had revealed what would have happened if Lucifer did not stir up the crowds to kill Jesus or if He did not die.

¹⁶During Jesus’ miracle mission all components in the narrative above began falling in line or coming together. Now with this in mind, let us look at Isaiah 66:20-24 again.

¹⁷If Jesus did not die for the sins of the world, these verses meant that all nations (originally, it was all Israel; now it’s all nations) will bring their “sin offerings” to Jerusalem where He (Jesus) would have been made Ruler and King; also, some time afterwards, King of the entire earth. (This was not just their “brethren” neither their “offering in a clean vessel,” as is mentioned in the text, but also their sin offerings: Read Isaiah 56:6-7, Ezekiel 46:1-15 and Zechariah 14:16-21 along with Isaiah 66:20-24 above.) God (Jesus) will act or take the place of the High Priest and accept the offerings. (This was the sacrificial, burnt or love offerings for the forgiveness of sins every year.) According to the text, sin will still be present and the forgiveness process will be ongoing and forever; also, death to transgressors who would refuse to bring their offerings to God.

¹⁸The forgiveness of sins process would have still been ongoing: every day; seven days a week, 30 days per month and on and on (meaning, "...from one new moon to another, and from one Sabbath to another..."). Daily and nightly, the nations would come to worship God and bring their sin and love offerings; those that don't will be destroyed. Isaiah 66:23 explains what Ezekiel 46:3 meant: night and day from one Sabbath to the next (seven days a week) and from one month to the next (from one new moon to the next); also, yearly according to Zech. 14:16.

¹⁹Isaiah 60:19-20 when compared to 66:20-24 can become very confusing if taken unaccompanied with other verses and at face value. In chapter 60, nights will discontinue; but in chapter 66, night and day will continue. This was so because in Isaiah 60:19-20 there will no longer be any more nights in God's new Kingdom.

²⁰Isaiah 60:19-20 pointed to Revelation 22:5, where there will be no more nights; ("day and night" was figuratively used in Revelation 7:15). According to Hebrews Chapter 3 to 4 and Revelation, there will just be one single eternal, never-ending day. Saints will enter into an eternal single day of rest: No more, "from one new moon to another, and from one Sabbath to another," or thirty days per month, seven days per week; just one single eternal, never-ending day of REST. (Zechariah 14:6-7)

²¹In conclusion, Isaiah 66:20-24 pointed to: What would have happened if Jesus did not die and was made King of Israel and afterwards, the world?

²²Jewish scribes were certain that Isaiah 66:20-24 alongside of 1 Chronicles 17:12 and 2 Chronicles 2:4 was the direction all prophecy of things mentioned in the Old Testament scripture were headed; therefore, fulfilling God's redemption plans or freedom from their enemies. In Satan's mind, this prophetic order had to be disturbed or altered at all cost.

²³Lucifer and his warlords, thinking to disturb the natural prophetic order of things mentioned in the Old Testament, focused all their energy on destroying Jesus. They made their decision, carry it out and the rest was history.

²⁴Jesus' "Lamb of God" title (or role) in John 1:29, 36 and the assumed, never-ending offerings mentioned above (which would have continued according to how the verses were interpreted had they not killed him or He did not die) confused Satan and his evil warlords as to how events would have all played out. Had they known they would not have crucified the LORD but used a different long-term structured course of action. This was so because Jesus' death made it so much easier for humanity's sins to be forgiven (without working): it could now be done by simply praying (no physical work involved). In the Old Testament, it was done by working: purchasing or breeding the animal, killing it, taking and offering it on the altar, burning it, etc.

²⁵After all the events occurred, an uncalculated, unthought-of, written "New Testament" covenant deal (making the current one, "Old") blew their minds. Jeremiah 31:31-34 (fulfilled according to Hebrew 8:7-13) was not properly considered during their deliberations and planning of Jesus' death.

2 Scriptural text verses to carefully examine that proved Jesus was coming as a conquering king

Keep in mind that many of these verses below did not come to pass due to the decision pathway Israel chose: they rejected Jesus as their Messiah who was supposed to come which changed the entire dynamics and outcome of Isaiah 66:20-24.

²⁶Read the verses listed below and the short comments made on how the current testament at the time (The Old Testament) was going to play out if Jesus had lived and not suffered and died. Another testament (The New Testament) was unthought-of (hidden), neither did it come into the minds of all those who plotted Jesus' death (Satan and his evil warlords); therefore, it was not considered neither a part of their deliberations. (Remember, Jesus' enemies only had the Old Testament to work with.) Verses below that are highlighted, represent very strong positions held of what would have happened if Jesus did not die but became King of the nations.

Psalms

22:27-31, 72:1-20

Isaiah

1:26-28, 2:2-4, 12-21, 9:6-7 (this verse was closely examined especially the statement, "...his government and peace there shall be no end..."), 11:1-16 (These verses no-doubt were carefully examined by the enemy along with the deliberation twist under the title, "Evidence of Jesus being conceived human..." in a separate document. See the last paragraph below for more information.), 16:5, 19:17-25 (No-doubt, Lucifer and his warlords were very afraid of this happening: Egypt was a type of the world and so its conversion would destroy Satan's plans for good.), 25:8-10 (They were no-doubt thinking, this verse meant, what will happen if Jesus lived and became ruler and King of Jerusalem; also, "...swallow up death in victory..." and "...GOD will wipe away tears from off all faces..." surely made them all begin thinking that their dreadful end was about to occur.), 27:12-13, 29:17-20, 32:1, 35:1-10, 40:1-5 (These verses were of serious concern when compared with Malachi 4:5; especially verse 5: "...before the coming of the great and dreadful day of the LORD...") 42:1-7 (The focus is on verse 4: "He shall not fail nor be discouraged, till he have set judgment in the earth..."), 45:11-17 (Lucifer and his warlords were very afraid of this happening), 52:14-15, 53:1-12 (These verses, thrown into the deliberation mix, no-doubt confused Satan and his warlords. Many other verses present Jesus as a conquering King, but these verses "assumably" have someone who may or may not be Jesus according to the way all of them may have been thinking, as being, despised, rejected, sorrowful, grieved, not esteemed, stricken, smitten, afflicted, wounded, bruised, chastised, oppressed, slaughtered, striped, dumb, cut off out of the land of the living, made his grave with the wicked, etc. They were all certainly unsure how to interpret this chapter.^a(A story told that goes something like this: As these verses were carefully being examined by Lucifer and his warlords, "smart," "intelligent," high ranking officer Baal, said, "Master, these verses maybe talking or pointing to you." He nervously continued, "If you read Isaiah 53:1-12 and continue with Isaiah 14:12-21, somehow with the exception of verse 9 in Chapter 53, the verses maybe pointing to you. Furthermore, if you think carefully on verse 9, you did no violence; just a little persuasion; but those ignorant humans did. Also, God will make you bare the sins of the whole world in that frightening Lake of Fire we saw when we were cast out of heaven and somehow make you intercede or plead there forever, for all transgressors." Lucifer simply "eyeballed," Baal; "cutting his eyes" at him.), 56:6-7 (like 66:20-24, the statement no-doubt caused scholars to have a false outlook of events that was to take place: "...their burnt offerings and their sacrifices shall be accepted..." In their minds, burnt offerings and sacrifices were to continue and enforced by the conquering ruler of the earth.), 60:1-22 (These verses no-doubt further confused Jesus' enemies.), 61:1-9 (When Jesus said what He did in Luke 4:18, Lucifer knew without a doubt Isaiah 61:1-2 referred to Him. But what does it truly mean? Isaiah 61:3-9 explains it. These verses along with 62:1-12 were no-doubt read carefully.), 65:17-25 (This was another verse that was interpreted to mean what was to happen if Jesus Christ became King or ruler of the planet and did not die.), Isaiah 66:20-24 along with 2 Chronicles 2:4 had to have been the main table topic of discussion on events and how they were to have played out.

Jeremiah

3:16-18 (These verses no-doubt helped Lucifer and his evil team to build their nasty plot; they figured out how Jesus' mission would have all come together.), 23:4-8, 30:9 (Old Testament saints would rise again when Jesus became ruler.), 31:6-14, 31-34, 37-40 (The statement that no-doubt confused the evil plotters was:

“...the woman with child and her that travaileth with child together...”
Reproduction (or new births) will still be ongoing in Jesus’ Kingdom if He had not died. Also, some laws would change. (Read Beelzebub’s comments in the section below called: “A Behind the scene Story of the Crucifixion Plot.”), 32:37-40, 33:15-18.

Ezekiel

18:3-9 (These verses say: “...the soul that sinneth, it shall die. But if a man be just, and do that which is lawful and right...Hath walked in my statutes, and hath kept my judgments, to deal truly; he is just, he shall surely live, saith the Lord GOD.” The Chapter continues with the criteria for living and dying. According to Jesus’ enemies, these verses had to be referring to Jesus’ Kingly reign on earth. This was simply because of how the words “die” and “live” was used in the passage: faithful men for example, Abraham, Moses, Job, etc., have all “died” long before the book of Ezekiel was written; they did not “live.” Thus, these verses must be referring to the period Jesus is made ruler of the planet, they all thought, when compared to Isaiah 66:24 above.), 28:11-19, 34:11-16, 22-31, 36:24-35 (the key statement here is “...This land that was desolate is become like the Garden of Eden...”), 37:1-14, 21-28, 38:1-23, 39:1-29 (This was what would have happened to all nations that came up against Israel after Jesus became ruler in Jerusalem. These verses were examined carefully; they also pointed to the unavailable, at the time, New Testament text at Revelation 20:8.), 43:1-9, 44:1-3 and 46:1-15 (Apparently, when the “Prince” shall come there will still be sacrifices and offerings for sins on the altar and therefore in the minds of the plotters, Jesus was not going to be that absolute sacrifice for sin. This was because the Prince was none other than Jesus Christ. These verses along with Isaiah 56:6-7, confused the entire evil group: Jesus’ Lamb of God role and the continued sacrifice for sins.), 47:1-9 (The river that will flow from the house of the LORD will be for the healing of the nations. Any or all sickness will be healed; this includes old age. From these verses, the evil plotters calculated how sinners would live forever with Christ during His eternal reign on earth. Ezekiel, Chapter 40 thru to Chapter 48 described how Jesus’ Kingly reign would have all played out had they not killed Him. It was to be a perfect environment by demand from Jesus Himself and forever.) 48:35 (The name of the city from that day onward would be called, The LORD is there.)

Daniel

2:44, 7:13-14, 9:24-27 (The statement, “...shall Messiah be cut off, but not for himself...” was no-doubt extremely confusing to the evil group; especially the statement, “but not for himself.” They probably did not know what it truly meant.), 12:2 (“Many” shall awake, and not “all,” according to how they understood the meaning of this verse.)

Hosea

1:11, 2:18-23, 14:3-8.

Joel

2:19-32, 3:1-2

Micah

4:1-7, 5:1-15 (All of what was prophesied here would have happened had they not killed Jesus.)

Nahum

1:2-15

Zephaniah

1:4-18, (This was perhaps one of the deciding verses that caused this evil group of plotters to move forward with trying to destroy Jesus.), 2:9-11 and 3:9-20.

Haggai

Zechariah

2:5-13 (Verse 11 may have really got their attention.), 3:1-10, 6:12-15, 8:20-23 (These verses were undisputable evidence of how events in Israel would have all played out if Jesus had remained alive.), 9:9 (This is another verse that is believed to have caused Lucifer and his warlords to move swiftly forward with plans to destroy Jesus. This was simple because verse 9:9 was fulfilled in John 14:14-16, right before their eyes. Old Testament prophecies began to all fall in place. Lucifer and his evil gang no-doubt began desperately trying to disturb it.), 12:9-14 (These verses were extremely confusing to them.) 13:2 (This verse, “...I will cut off the names of the idols out of the land, and they shall no more be remembered: and also I will cause the prophets and the unclean spirit to pass out of the land...,” no-doubt, infuriated Lucifer and his warlords; they began seeing their fate flashing before their eyes during Jesus’ ministry. The “great and dreadful day of the LORD” mentioned in Malachi 4:5, was about to begin; their fellow comrades were being cast out in droves.), 13:7 (This verse was an excellent idea to them: “...smite the shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered...”) 14:1-21 (Notice that heathen will be around and those that choose not to come to Jerusalem to worship the King will be destroyed. See also Acts 3:22-23 and Deuteronomy 18:15-19 for what Moses said regarding Jesus.)

Malachi

3:1-5, 18 (Righteousness will populate the land again; this spelled bad news for Satan and his warlords. Discernment will expose those who are not righteous. This was a big concern because the verses pointed to Jesus; it was clearly understood in verse five what was about to take place in Israel.) 4:4-6 (Elijah in the person of John the Baptist, will come just before the coming of the great and dreadful day of the LORD. Jesus confirmed this in Matthew 11:13-14, 17:11-12. This verse undoubtedly proved that Jesus was about to set up His Kingdom on earth. As a result, no-doubt, in Lucifer’s mind, Jesus had to be quickly stopped and destroyed. In such a short period of time, just over three years, lots of Old Testament prophecies, to get Jesus closer to achieving His mission on earth, began to unfold. Soon, for Lucifer and his wicked warlords in their thoughts, it would be a catastrophe: “the great and dreadful day of the LORD,” WILL be upon them.)

^aThese thoughts are not in scripture but mysteriously came to mind as this section was being written.

The Behind the Scene Crucifixion Plot

These thoughts are not found in scripture, but mysteriously came to mind as this section was being written.

There were several critical issues that were grave concerns to Lucifer and his warlords which began wiping out their strongholds among the people.

They were: (1) Jesus’ unprecedented strategic approach (low, meek and humble) to become King appeared to be working. (2) All miracles that helped to achieve His goals (restoring sight to the blind; restoring hearing to the deaf; restoring lost limbs and broken bones; curing all forms of leprosy, diseases and sickness; etc.) were getting Him closer and closer to His mission assignment. (3) Rumors of the dead coming back to life (a powerful miracle to prove who He was and what He could do for mankind) erupted and were seriously spreading among the people. (4) Satan’s demonic host was being cast out in droves and therefore wiping out strategic plans, positions of control, deception and human destruction. (5) Jesus’ transfer of miraculous powers to humans (Matthew 10:1, Luke 10:19) so that they too began performing miracles and casting out devils. (6) Satan’s wicked judicial and religious systems were all falling apart and their corrupt practices were being exposed; even spreading to other foreign nations. (7) People began leaving false teachings and embracing Jesus’ message; many began believing in Him.

(Certainly, Satan did not want a greater repeat of what happened with Solomon in 2 Chronicles 9:23 and verse 26; it would be a fatal blow to his planned program; especially, if Jesus reigned as King over all the earth. If it was allowed to occur or be established, then it would inevitably last or remain forever.)

As Lucifer and his warlords carefully read through the Old Testament scripture, (remember that the New Testament scripture was not yet written) plotting how to destroy Jesus, Beelzebub threw a “monkey wrench” (another twist or scenario, so to speak) into the whole deliberation (the mixing bowl of confusion) as to how events taken place will all play out. He predicted that if Jesus was left alive (or alone), He may marry a woman and have righteous or perfect children with her. He said, “What do you think would happen if He gets married to a woman?” The entire meeting went silent with all eyes focused intently on Beelzebub, listening carefully and in deep thoughts. Beelzebub continued, “If it could happen with God and Mary, it certainly could happen with Jesus and a woman. Remember, the righteous bloodline flows through the man; not the woman.”

Mary, Jesus’ mother was examined closely and it was concluded that perfect children and offspring were possible through the bloodline of Jesus (this was because Jesus was born through Mary His earthly, human, mother; He was conceived perfect and without sin). If God (the Father) did it through Mary and produced a perfect human (His Son, Jesus), then certainly, Jesus can legally do the same through a wife (one woman) whom He may marry. The bloodline comes through the man and not the woman. Therefore, a perfect bloodline will come from Jesus and not the woman whom He marries.

Beelzebub painted a distasteful picture for the entire group of evil warlords. He said, “What would happen if Jesus married a woman, produce children (boys and girls) and they grow up and marry among themselves (or their own kind as Adam’s children did) and their children also grow up and marry and have children, and this cycle continues? If they maintain their perfect and sinless lifestyles, spreading it as they continue to multiply, what would happen over a period of 200 to 300 years if they are all fruitful and increased abundantly and the earth becomes filled with them?” This they thought, explains what Jeremiah 31:8-9 meant (“...the woman with child...”); especially Ezekiel 46:16-18 and Malachi 3:18.

He challenged all attendees to read Ezekiel’s Chapter 40 thru to Chapter 48 along with Daniel 9:25-26 (especially the statement, “...the people of the Prince...”) again for strong evidence of this happening. “Sinful mankind may eventually fail God and be destroyed over time and these perfect humans would live forever because they would be sinless and repopulate the entire earth. We then would be doomed because all of them would give the entire earth to Jesus (representing God) to carry out His original ‘Garden of Eden’ plans (Ezekiel 36:24-35). This truly explains how He will build His army to conquer as King without violence.”

Satan was “blown away” on the theory. It was certainly possible (as he pondered it to himself) and then cursed God. This will not be allowed to happen, he thought. He will attack Jesus at all cost and make Him undesirable to any woman, disturbing any reproduction possibilities when he was finished with Him.

Satan began strategizing a challenge to throw at God all being part of the process to destroy Jesus and disrupt His mission according to Old Testament scripture of becoming King. This was similar to what he had tried doing when Job’s “upright” and “perfect” lifestyle was brought up by God. (Job 1:8) He took away Job’s possessions but it did not work. He then inflicted an uncomfortable disease that break out sores all over Job’s body but failed the challenge again because he believed it was not accompanied with unbearable pain and suffering. No human can endure unbearable pain and suffering; none! Satan thought.

Satan later came before God’s presence and stood out pointing his finger in a direction where Jesus may have been at the time, then threw out his challenge (so to speak), regarding Jesus. He said: No Man! No...Man! None! can endure incredibly intense, unbearable pain and suffering. If this was inflicted on your Son, Jesus, He “WILL!” “Curse!” you to your face and “Disobey!” your every Will and Command. Satan also mumbled about the unfair selection of Peter’s role (Luke 22:31) because Jesus ratified him in Matthew 16:17-19.

God (The Father), paused for a while (as though He was in deep thoughts) and then accepted the challenge by instructing Satan (giving him permission) to proceed. Afterwards, Satan quickly left in haste. (Satan did not know the words of Elihu in Job 33:21-22 predicted or prophesied what he was to do with Jesus: “His flesh is consumed away, that it cannot be seen; and his bones that were not seen stick out...” Thus, following a similar occurrence mentioned in Job 1:6-12 and 2:1-6.)

As soon as Satan left God's presence, Jesus said what He did in John 12:31 that caused him (Lucifer) to go into a frenzy and move swiftly forward with his plans even though they all were already on high alert. (This was because of what Jesus said earlier in Matthew 4:17, 10:7, 16:28 and Mark 9:1. He was thinking that the Kingdom of God was about to appear.) Lucifer had to work fast because of this; no more meetings, no more deliberations and strategizing and no more procrastination; just action! He had to quickly make his move and his thoughts were “NOW!” before God changes His mind. He remembered the prophecies that were all beginning to unfold, creating major problems for him and his pending challenge. This challenge was about to begin.

Satan himself did not clearly understand Jesus' statement in Mark 9:31. Along with the disciples, he too was confused when Jesus mentioned that He was to be killed and raised from the dead. He was thinking that it may have been some kind of parable, allegorical, or figurative statement. This was because he knew Ezekiel 18:4 (“...the soul that sinneth, it shall die.”) and that Jesus was sinless; therefore, He could not die because He was free from sin. Satan was thinking that He had to have been referring to something else. According to him, it was an allegorical, figurative or symbolic statement because all scripture (the New Testament was not yet written) recorded Him coming as a conquering king; conquering everything around Him. So then, He could not die.

(Satan confirmed this during the beating when Jesus should have been literally dead long before the beating ended; this was because of His appearance; how torn-up His body looked afterwards.)

The Father then instructed Jesus over details on what was about to happen as He approached the garden along with His disciples. Also, He informed Him that some elements of perfection (no pain and suffering, no mistakes, no accidents, no death, ongoing protection, etc.) were to be set aside during the process. And also, when the “behind the scene” redemption plan begins, it cannot be stopped or it fails.

Even though Jesus knew He was to die and raise again the third day, He struggled, staggered and stared in a daze over the “detailed” information; and was in deep and “difficult” thoughts. He instructed Peter, James and John to wait for Him at their favorite spot and continued for a short distance so that they would not hear the communication with Him and His Father; so as not to disappoint them at this time in any way on what was said and about to happen. The others were a small distance away from them; however, Peter, James and John were closer in the event He needed their immediate support.

When Jesus was alone in the garden, He knew what the unclean spirits would do to Him which was why being in agony, He prayed earnestly until His sweat was “as it were great drops of blood falling down to the ground.” (Luke 22:44) He asked His Father whether the cup of suffering could be taken away or some other way of paying the world's sin debt; but His Father said to Him that this was the only way.

He then obediently said, “...Lo, I come (in the volume of the book it is written of me,) to do thy will, O God... Sacrifice and offering and burnt offerings and offering for sin thou wouldest not, neither hadst pleasure therein; which are offered by the law...Lo, I come to do thy will, O God...” (Psalm 40:6-8, Hebrews 10:7-9) After saying this and committing Himself to His Father's will, He then knew He was going to face the biggest challenge of His human life and at the mercies of the unclean spirits hands. The only thing that kept Him from reacting otherwise was His intense love for his creation (you the reader) and His Father. If He had responded with the Power! at His will, He would have lost all of mankind; all of His children forever.

Lucifer, not quite yet fully understanding God's omniscient attribute (all-knowingness), was unaware that his challenge and the outcome were already known and seen by GOD long before the foundation of the world; it was a part of the plan to redeem man (or His fallen creation) back to Himself: The Ultimate Sacrificial Act.

What did Jesus mean by saying, "I am in the Father, and the Father in me" after saying, "I and my Father are one" (not "one-person," but "one")? Obviously, the Son and the Father are two separate persons and therefore "one-person" could not have been meant here. This is because humanly speaking, it would make no sense.

Jesus said to His disciples: "Have not I chosen you twelve, and one of you is a devil?" (John 6:70)
Did Jesus literally meant this or was it just a figure of speech? A possible answer to this question opens up a door to a world of hidden mysteries.

He willingly emptied His human self of "All-Knowing" characteristics and took on all attributes, responsibilities and obligations of a human son.

God is Sovereign and All-Powerful! He doesn't need to come HIMSELF to the earth to resolve anything; just simply command it, to destroy or remove it from His creation.

So then, why did God choose Himself to come to the earth as a human to resolve our sin problem?
Logic says: If we do not have an ending, we must never have a beginning?

God is Spirit! (John 4:24) He then took a piece of Himself that never had a beginning, neither an ending (can never cease to exist) and breathed it into man (Is. 42:5); man, then became a living soul (God does not breathe oxygen). Thus, we have a piece of Him (a spirit) inside of us that can never end and as a result, MUST spend eternity somewhere.

There are four reasons listed, why God came Himself (He did not send someone else) to our physical world (the world He created) as a human to resolve our sin problem.

Should the One who created evil (Isaiah 45:7) be the ONLY One who could bear and pay the evil debt? Should the One who established the rules, be the ONLY One who could allow all rule-breakers to go free? If He did both, but didn't have to, then His love for us must be intense.

He was heavily disfigured to the point where His disciples did not even recognize Him. "...his visage was so marred more than any man, and his form more than the sons of men...he hath no form nor comeliness; and when we shall see him, there is no beauty that we should desire him." (Isaiah 52:14, 53:2)

He is GOD! Here are IRREFUTABLE, scriptural, PROOF TEXTS, from Genesis to Revelation to prove that He was and is God, along with notes.
Jesus said: "...if ye believe not that I am he, ye shall die in your sins." (John 8:24)

There are many verses in scripture that prove Jesus was and is God based on what He said, others said and the works and miracles He did.

Why then did Jesus not clearly, plainly and publicly say He was GOD?

If He had convincingly did, along with proof, then the people's perception, expectation, response and demand of Him would have been different. He then would NOT have been crucified and we all would still be in our sins and died as a result.

"Faith cometh by hearing and hearing by the word of God." (Rom. 10:17) Faith can ONLY come this way. If Genesis was vitamin A, Exodus vitamin B, Leviticus vitamin C, Numbers vitamin D, then from John, Matthew, Mark and Luke, etc. and so on, so to speak, six complete spiritual nutrients from the soil. This brings about a healthy spiritual body. Jesus said, "Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God." What happens in the physical world also.
