

God is Sovereign and All-Powerful! He doesn't need to come HIMSELF to the earth to resolve anything. He just simply commands it: to destroy or remove it from His creation.

So then, why did God choose Himself to come to the earth as a human to resolve our sin problem?

Logic says: If we do not have an ending, we must never have a beginning.

God is Spirit! (John 4:24) He then took a piece of Himself that never had a beginning nor an ending (can never cease to exist) and breathed it into man. (Job 27:3, Is. 42:5) It was a spirit-breathing, soul-planting act, not done to any of His other (Genesis 1:3-25) creations, but to man only. Man, then became a living soul (God does not breathe oxygen). Thus, we have a piece of Him (a spirit) inside of us that can never end and, as a result, MUST all spend eternity somewhere.

There are four reasons listed, for why God came Himself. He did not send someone else to our physical world (the world He created) as a human to resolve our sin problem.

Should the One who created evil (the ability to disobey Him: Isaiah 45:7) be the ONLY One who could bear and pay the evil debt? Should the One who established the rules, be the ONLY One who could allow all rule-breakers to go free? If He did both but didn't have to, then His love for us must be intense.

...You will "remember" but will "never" see beauty (or anything beautiful) and happiness again. You will "remember" but will "never" have pleasure or friends again. You will "never" have joy, peace and love again. You will "never" smile and laugh again. You will "never" hear music playing again; just weeping, wailing and gnashing of teeth! You will "never" see this side of eternity again, and you will "never" see light or any form of lighting again. (Ps. 49:19) Depart from Me; ye cursed, ye vile, ye wicked servant; prepare to meet your destiny! You will "never" escape the Lake of Fire that was prepared for YOU! You will burn, weep, and wail forever! And therefore, prepare "never" to see My face again, YOU FOOL!

“...That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying, I will open my mouth in parables; I will utter things which have been kept secret from the foundation of the world.” (Matthew 13:35) “Even the mystery which hath been hid from ages and from generations, but now is made manifest to his saints...” (Colossians 1:26) “Now to him that is of power to stablish you according to my gospel, and the preaching of Jesus Christ, according to the revelation of the mystery, which was kept secret since the world began, But now is made manifest, and by the scriptures of the prophets, according to the commandment of the everlasting God, made known to all nations for the obedience of faith: To God only wise, be glory through Jesus Christ for ever. Amen.” (Romans 16:25-27)

Excerpt: "...I knew the power, strength, and pull sin had on your life and, therefore, suffered, bled, and died to pay your sin debt. This includes ALL sinful (or evil) acts committed by the whole world. In other words, everyone with no exceptions! As a result, the whole world goes sin-FREE: ALL those on earth who wanted this freedom. You originally wanted your own way and not My way; so therefore, for you to have received this freedom arrangement (The Pardon Agreement) release from the shackles of sin (ALL of your sinful acts from start to finish) and its penalty, you had to request and accept it for yourself. You had to request and accept it from Me to have it work for you. Yes! I allowed all sinners and their evil acts, including yours, to go sin-FREE. I forgave everyone with no eternal penalties. However, it too would NOT be just, nor would it be fair to give someone something they don't truly want. (Matt. 7:9-11, Luke 11:11-13) For this reason, you had to ask for it if you truly wanted it. You had to seek for it to truly find it. You had to request it from Me to have it work for you. (Matt. 7:7, Luke 11:9-10) How else then could a lawfully just, rightfully faithful, and absolutely blameless person (with a righteously perfect balance), fix your problem if you truly didn't want it to be fixed?"

Our time journey begins - INTRODUCTION -

Imagine experiencing the uprising

WAR!

In Heaven

...After war broke out in heaven (Rev. 12:7-8) ...Lucifer and his warlords, along with an army of angels, stood before God, shaken up and fearful; never before experiencing the emotional feelings of fear and terror. When they charged forward with their plans to dethrone God and destroy Him, thinking that it was possible, there came a frighteningly loud “BANG!” like a very loud, deafening, crashing sound. It was like thunder and lightning striking the area. The entire place shook. Everyone stopped and stared at the scene to God’s upper left. Something never seen before came into existence. Something dreadfully frightening appeared and took shape before everyone’s eyes: a new world of black liquid fire. (Earthly fires are always reddish, yellowish blue, and create light, but not black.) What made this frightening was that the heat from it began to be felt; never a feeling like this one was ever felt before; the awful feeling of pain began.

What had happened was that there was an extremely loud explosion that sent a dark object in the direction of where the wicked angels were all assembled. It sped through the galactic sky on a trajectory pathway towards everyone standing in God’s presence. It was small as it started its approach at super speeds, but as it came closer, it got bigger and bigger until it was massively larger than the area where the wicked angels were assembled. It was coming fast; on a direct hit and a collision course that frightened all those who were present. At the moment of impact, as it was about to slam into this wicked assembly, it shifted its course, just missing everyone, and stationed itself to God’s upper left. Then the unthinkable happened: a “never-before-seen” scene occurred. Black fire erupted, gushing from the object; the dreadful world of black liquid fire appeared. (Jude 1:13) All of the wicked angels present began feeling the heat from it.

Another terrible scene occurred: God’s facial expression changed. It was never before seen; it was never before imagined. The expression of anger, rage, and fury were upon His face. (Jer. 32:37) This frightening look dangerously stared at them with eyes red like the flames of earthly fires. Suddenly, a few of the wicked front-line angels were picked up in a type of whirlwind and tossed into the fiery world. They began screaming at the top of their voices, as their voices echoed into the galactic sky. It was a perfect scream; it was a scream of terror, suffering, and intense pain. This screaming was never heard or experienced before in heaven.

As a result, fear gripped all of the wicked assemblies of angels; but a mass amount of them again charged forward; thinking that a multitude of united “oneness” (^{1a}walking into and uniting with each other, becoming one entity; something all spirit persons can do) of angels could conquer God’s invisible and unknown defenses; but then, a monstrous fiery hand came forth out of the black fiery world and grabbed all of them at once and pulled them into the fiery entrance. What was extremely terrifying at this time was the painful and horrifying expressions on all of their faces and the very loud and intense screams they were all making as they entered into this new world of black liquid fire. Facial expressions of terror and intense pain were never seen before in heaven on anyone’s face; but now, it was all happening.

God was now in a perfectly dangerous rage and fury; the frightening expression on His face made everyone present shake violently. Lucifer, along with all of the others began retreating and moving backward. The monstrous hand returned and this time, a very large group of angels were picked up and pulled into the fiery entrance. There were loud echoed screams of intense pain and serious horrifying expressions on their faces as a big splash was heard and they disappeared into the ragingly boiling, black fiery liquid.

The large gathering quickly began moving backward, but they were unable to hide, flee, or somehow disappear into the surrounding areas from God's presence. All places around them were removed; there were no hiding places; all were on a flat-level plain. At this time, God was massive in size and saw everyone at once; and everyone saw Him. Fear gripped all of them as they looked around at each other stunned at the new emotional feeling that was now being felt.

Suddenly, not planned or expected, a remnant of angels who were somewhat not fully or actively a part of the rebellion, "suicidally" (so to speak), crawled out in front of the crowd in a worshipful position, with their faces towards the pavement underneath them and their hands extended outward in front of them. They did this, not knowing whether they would have survived this dangerous act of bravery, as they were determined to approach God's throne. God knew their humble intentions, and so their approach was allowed.

In a loud voice, they very humbly cried out to God, as they were moving forward: "Hear us, O LORD, before you destroy us! Please graciously hear our cry! Have mercy! Have mercy! Have mercy on our wretchedness!"

Then, with a loud cry from the frightened, defeated, and retreating crowd, a false display of regret (resulting from fear only) emerged among many of them. Others (a remnant) who were somewhat lied to (John 8:44) as they were persuaded to join the rebellion, also began weeping as a result and crawled forward. At this time, they were all shocked at themselves: they were weeping. They had never before wept; never did they know weeping was possible.

God's voice was frighteningly powerful; it echoed mightily into the galactic sky. "Lucifer! Come forth!" Lucifer, very deceitfully stood a great distance away and behind those who were at the forefront; who disappeared, screaming into the fiery world. Interestingly frightening as he was, he was quickly brought forth by a type of whirlwind at God's command.

At this time, Lucifer and the remaining angels learned new attributes of God that were never seen, displayed, or known before. They never knew that He was a God of wrath; thus, the anger, rage, fury, and fiery red-eye expression on His face. They never knew that He was a God who was invincibly, and indestructibly All-Powerful. And later, they frighteningly learned that He was an All-knowing God who knew all things: the beginning of all actions, events, thoughts, motives, purpose, etc., and the ending of the same. Therefore, now in their wicked minds, He had to have been dreadfully All-Present; He was always among them as they were planning their wicked conspiracy.

As Lucifer was unwillingly brought forward (God's powerful Word ushered him forward even though he tried somewhat to resist the order), God demanded of him a question that burned into the hearts of all those who were present. "What have you done to My creation?"

Someone had to expose the plot, Lucifer thought. God then quickly responded. "No one did! I knew from the beginning when you corrupted yourself with evil, and as a result, sin came." Lucifer and his warlords began trembling because now, he (Lucifer) was powerless in God's presence with all of his desires, plans, purposes, etc., they were all known by God; nothing was hidden. But how did He know, Lucifer thought?

Lucifer then pointed his finger at God and shouted out loud so that everyone present could clearly hear him saying:

"You! You are responsible for this! You! You created evil, and therefore, sin came! If it didn't exist, sin would have never existed. If You hadn't created evil, all of this would not have happened. (Is. 45:7) I would not have done what I did. Therefore, because You created evil, so You must pay for our deeds! You must pay for all of us! You are to blame for it all!”

Lucifer, now the accuser, has somewhat mentally and verbally created his own form of remedy for evil: the punishment must be intense pain and suffering. At that moment, he did not know that God would allow him to be the one who would administer and coordinate the punishment: intense pain and suffering. He did not know that God would allow him to be the one who would become the executioner. (God allowed Satan to do his own bidding before He stepped in and did His.)

For more on this, read the section later called: “The Ultimate Sacrificial Act and the surprisingly residing Judge called, Hell.”

But deep down inside Lucifer’s mind (as he thought to himself), he knew God was all (100%) absolute, just, blameless, and rightfully faithful with a perfect balance. (Lev. 19:35-36, Prov. 11:1, 16:11, 20:23) If evil was not present or created along with good (good and evil), then it would have been a perfect opportunity to accuse Him. God is perfect, but this would not have been a perfect balance and, thus, cannot stand in a faultless court of law. His capacity to be God (His abilities or qualifications) would have also come into question.

Satan very well knew and thought that if evil or the ability to choose between both good and evil was not present in His creation, then God would not have been absolute in all His creation with a correct and perfect balance. He would then not have been a perfectly balanced GOD!

God said to Lucifer: “You fool! You quietly answered your very own question and accusation.” Lucifer then replied: “I said nothing!” God answered him saying: “I heard your thoughts, loud and clear. They answered your very own question and conscience, which condemned you.” Lucifer was blown away, so to speak. He was now certainly convinced and then frighteningly aware that God knew his very own thoughts. The very day iniquity entered his heart and the planning of his uprising began, God knew everything. He knew it all and was there among them as they planned.

“I knew your foolish desires long before you were even created.”

Lucifer was previously unaware that God heard all thoughts, and that He was All-knowing. He knew that the spirit source he was made alive from all came from God, Himself; but then, he thought, this alive, spirit-source from God, must have some mysterious unseen link or communication channel connection. Since God was the source of his existence even though he was individually and independently separate, he learned that, like an invisible linked power source that cannot be seen, only God knew all, and from Him radiated and provided all the life and power source of everything created. Without God, no living “spirit-soul” could exist; and by Him, they exist as long as He does. This (he thought), alive spirit-source in some way is linked or transmitted to God. It was all an unseen connected spiritual power source.

Lucifer continued his loud accusations toward God. He said:

“So then, why did you create me, knowing this was to happen? I did not ask to be here!”

God said, “You very well know, as you are now defending yourself, this too was entirely rightful. Knowing a bad event ending of an incident and abruptly stopping it before it occurred was not always a perfect judgment or action (Matt. 13:24-30) without allowing the episode or the correct balance to proceed; thus, many times, resulting in a perfectly balanced outcome.

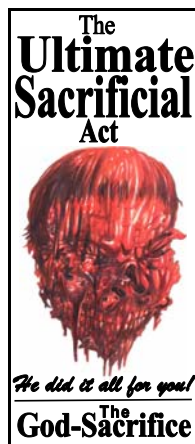

The guilty would always inadvertently argue that they were not given the opportunity to display, defend, and present themselves. This is because no creation knows the protocols of all that there is to know about being an All-Knowing person. There are times when matters must take their very own courses to allow the voice of an accuser to be heard. I Am the ONLY One who knows ALL that was and is required, and I Am the ONLY One capable of meeting ALL the requirements. I Am perfect, and so then, you must prove that I am not if you or anyone dares (with no fear) to challenge Me. You must be allowed the opportunity to accuse Me with evidence in My Courtroom. And if you can't, you will be severely punished for your destructive lies, actions, accusations, and your own choice and desire to infect yourself with evil.

You lying hypocrite! You very well know that My Own Self would have cried out had I not performed that which was fair and faultless with the right and perfect balance. You had to be given your own opportunity so that you could cast your own judgment on your own and by yourself. You will then know and be personally convinced, without any doubt, that you are innocent or guilty (right or wrong) and that your accusations are true or false.

If an all-knowing person denied a (a spirit-soul or a spirit-soul-body) creation and refused it to take place, because of a bad incident, knowing that this incident would occur later, then there would be nothing and no one but Me: no creation. If a union was not allowed to join together because of a known bad future incident that would occur, then that union would not take place. Also, the good that is brought forth out from the good-bad union will not occur. That good from the union that helps to provide a perfect balance with other related incidents will fall short or be incomplete: defective, deficient, or faulty. Thus, the world would be empty with Me only.

The only way that would allow a perfect world of living creations along with a perfect balance of Good and Evil to coexist together, is to include in the creation, an Ultimate Sacrificial Act to pay for the defective and deficiencies that occur as a result.” (This is like a constitutional law, decree, or statute. Read details of it later in this document.) “This is like a sacrificial act of the will to resolve a bad incident or outcome in a union that begins manifesting itself. This Sacrificial Act would conclusively remove evil (one side of the good-evil balance) permanently. Hence, legitimately removing the ability to do any further sin that resulted from evil, forever! (1 John 3:8-10)

This ultimate sacrifice would pay for it all: from the beginning of ALL evil acts, unto the very end. If an all-knowing person can legitimately and evidently remove one side of a balanced weight completely, due to its PROVEN and evidently destructive capability, then an off-balance scale would be legitimately justifiable. But the evil act must first be evidently proven and allowed to freely take its own course.

This Ultimate Sacrificial Act would ETERNALLY be the best; and if so, an off-balance world (without evil or without good and evil co-existing together) by eliminating evil from My creation will then be legitimate. If all evil deeds were paid for in full, from start to finish, then there would be no reason to allow evil to continue to coexist along with good. With or without it, the correct balance will still stand. Thus, there would be no further reason to retain it. I will permanently remove evil from My active creation. Creation will then live eternally without it. Evil (or sin) afterward will NEVER exist: show forth or manifest itself again. (Psalm 52:2-5, Nahum 1:9)

You, nevertheless, took a different path in all of this: the opportunity to destroy someone who created you and loves you dearly. I have never done you wrong. So why then do you suddenly hate Me and want Me destroyed along with those who would not follow your wicked path? (John 7:19, 8:37-40) Why did you want to destroy the world I created? You did all of it just to try and be like Me: God! (Is. 14:14) Also, you did it because of your very own greed, lust, and pride.

If you had only sinned or disobeyed Me as a result of evil, I would have forgiven you. My Ultimate Sacrificial Act would cover ALL evil acts; even all those committed here in heaven. But because you tried (your intention was, thinking that you could) to destroy Me and pulled many along with you on your wicked path, which destroyed a large and significant piece of My creation...Besides this, on the comment made, that you 'did not ask to be here,' I did not ask you to allow iniquity to find its place in your heart...”

...After a frightening reprimand from God, Lucifer and the assembly of his cohorts of angels were cursed. God said to them: “Your iniquities, ‘shall not be purged with sacrifice nor offering for ever.’” (1 Sam. 3:14) This ruling (or judgment) was unknown and never heard before. Sacrifice was unheard of. Later, as time emerged out of eternity, all of them found out what it meant and their fate. They knew that their ultimate and eternal destiny would be to follow those who were already cast into the black, fiery world. (Jude 1:13) It was just a matter of time.

A remnant of the angels who humbly came forward on their own seeking pardon and an audience with God, along with those who were lied to and those who also came, but only out of fear...This curse did not apply to them, but...remove the fear...(zero wisdom, knowledge, and understanding), then what... (Matt. 13:24-30)

QUESTIONS FOR YOU THE READER

Jesus said to His disciples: “Have not I chosen you twelve, and one of you is a devil?” (John 6:70) Did Jesus literally mean this, or was it just a figure of speech? A possible answer to this question opens up a door to a world of hidden mysteries.

Jesus said that Hell was created for whom in Matthew 25:41 (The answer is: the devil and his angels)? If it was prepared for them ONLY and no one else, then why would the unsaved spend their time there?

What did Jesus mean when He said what He did to the scribes and Pharisees in John 8:41-47, especially verse 47? Can you read between the lines on what He is actually telling them?

How was it that God allowed Jeroboam’s child, Abijah, in Kings 14:12-13, to die very young (not fully knowing good and evil), “...because in him there is found some good thing toward the LORD God of Israel...” As a result of the knowledge of both good and evil that was not yet fully manifested (demonstrated or displayed) in the child’s life, he was taken away from the land of the living.

Why were nations of the Old Testament (Moabites, Ammonites, Amalekites, Amorites, Philistines, etc.) called the enemies of God when they never witnessed or saw a demonstration of God’s power like the children of Israel did?

- Our time journey ends! -
Imagine hearing the following

Death!

Sentence from GOD

...I placed you in a physical world, in remand prison (Isaiah 42:6-7, 53:8-9, 61:1) for seventy (70) years. (Psalm 90:10) I gave you seventy years to seek Me with all your heart and search for Me (Jer. 29:13) through all of Satan’s darkened lies and false persuasions to destroy Me and everything I created if it was possible. (Psalm 2:1-5)

Because of your pride, lust, and greed (your very own sinful choices, decisions, accepted ideologies in heaven, etc.), they created your very own labyrinth-matrix, perplex-complexities, and as a result of this, your own personal environment world was created: the type of family you were born in, your friends and people who you will “rub shoulders” (or socialize) with, etc., your looks, status (as a result), your mannerism, personality, duration of life, (Ps. 10:1-11, Prov. 10:27), etc., your location where you were born, your society, your culture, your surroundings, etc. Afterward, you came to earth and were placed inside a physical body, which caused you not to have access to any prior wisdom, knowledge, and understanding. Hence, you had to then grow in wisdom, knowledge, and understanding from conception. (See: 1b, [P54-61] notes above) You were then given the opportunity to find Me (your saviour, your redeemer, your ultimate sacrificial sin-bearer) if you truly wanted to; if you had simply asked or begged Me too and searched the eternal living scriptures (My Word) by yourself. (Psalm 119:89)

You did not truthfully, intelligently, honestly, fairly, independently, and justly with the right balance (Lev. 19:35-36), look for Me; but instead, you looked to your own traditions, customs, your friends, and your deceitful scholars to show you the way to Me. You relied “only” on their wicked and false counsel to find Me (their own cultural message and native traditions with their own choices, views, upbringing methods, training, teachings, all of their false gods, etc.), which was all created by Satan, your “father” (John 8:44) who is the father of all lies.

Your fathers hated Me, and as instructed by Lucifer their father, stole My name and assigned it to the dumb idols you served: their false gods. You then embraced and bowed down to them (your nation’s gods) as a treasure, a symbol, and a fortune, but not as the God of the universe. Your gods are the gods of your fathers, your scholars, and your very own lust and greed. Your gods were not Me!

Your fathers insulted and mocked Me by making Me out to be half-human and half-animal, then calling it God! (Psalm 106:19-20) What do you think your fathers try to insinuate? That I am half human and half animal? Do I have wild animal tendencies or characteristics? Can I not speak? Can I not hear your request? Do I sit still and do nothing? This is what your fathers thought of Me.

Nevertheless, you embraced their foolish message by worshipping their idols as gods. What were they trying to say to the world about who I am? I hated what they did: insulting Me!

They also mocked Me by worshipping the heavens (sun, moon, planets, etc.), implying that I am a God who sees, hears, and sits still, and does nothing. Just stare but mute. Your fathers’ worshipped devils and idols of gold, silver, brass, stone, and wood, which cannot see, hear, speak, or walk. (Rev. 9:20) Your idol gods were the works of your fathers who stole My name; they are not Me but are all My creations. (Is. 40:18-25) Why did you curse Me with your false worship to your father’s false gods? (Psalm 135:15-18) You had no fear for Me along with them. (Jer. 5:22)

Examine My Word: all of the mighty miracles I did that no other gods can do and did, and yet the surrounding nations still embraced their idols, which cannot speak or perform any of the miracles as I did. You did the very same thing. You despised Me because I was not the God of your nation, but the God of those you hated.

“Hast thou not heard long ago how I have done it, and of ancient times that I have formed it? now have I brought it to pass...But I know thy abode, and thy going out, and thy coming in and thy rage against me.” [2 Kings 19:25-27, Isaiah 37:26-28] “Fear ye not me...will ye not tremble at my presence...” [Jeremiah 5:22]

So then, why did you not worship Me? Who did mighty works as I did? Weren’t you told that there was no God like Me? There were no gods that did mighty works as I did. (Ps. 86:8) Have you not heard long ago how I have done it and in ancient times, how I have formed it and brought it to pass? Nevertheless, I know your rage against Me.

Your fathers hated everything about Me! (Psalm 109:1-31) They hated My Word and tried to destroy it by criticizing it, condemning it, casting doubts on it, and desperately trying to change it. (Ps. 56:5) They hated My people (and everyone that came to their rescue), trying hard to destroy all of them. (Psalm 83:4-8) They hated My creation and tried repeatedly to destroy it in the name of their false gods. Have you ever stopped and asked yourself, why you hate without a cause?

You did not use your own effort to find Me and look independently and all by yourself to My Word. Your very own pride, lust, and greed resulted in a hatred towards Me and My Word without a cause. You wasted your 70 years on your own self.

Did you know that some of your wicked angel-gang members who persuaded you to destroy Me in the beginning were your leading spiritual guides on earth? You congregated yourself under their authority and accepted everything they said, like you did when you were here in heaven. You foolishly rejected My Word and embraced everything your spiritual guides said. (As your evil intentions were during the uprising in heaven, so by your own choice, you allowed it to resume again when you came to the earth. Instead of believing My Word and what it said, you believed them. (Jeremiah 23:1-40) Afterward, you spread the same poison (evil, infectious beliefs) to others as they did to you; and in an ongoing contagious cycle, they looked to you as their spiritual guardian as you looked to your own wicked spiritual guides. Why did you listen to those blind, ignorant, greedy, dumb dogs? (Isaiah 56:10-11, Matthew 15:26, Ephesians 4:18, Philippians 3:2)

In heaven, I gave you everything your heart desired. I sustained you and was your BEST friend. In the beginning, no one was closer to you than Me. (Psalm 41:9) We walked together; we laughed and joked together; we talked about many things together; we went on many interesting and wonderful adventures together. We had the perfect relationship together. What was hard for Me to accept was that you disregarded all of our wonderful friendship time together and stormed into My Holy presence along with an army of other angels to destroy Me at all costs and dethrone Me if it was possible. All, just to feed your wicked desire to be God! Who lied to you and told you that you can attain 'God' status?

Behold! From the 'beginning' (but what? even now; 1 Kings 14:14), you wanted to destroy Me. From the 'beginning,' you wanted to dethrone Me. From the 'beginning,' you wanted to crucify Me, (like that which was announced at Luke, chapter 23 verses 21 and 23). From the 'beginning,' you did not want Me to be the LORD of your life. (Job 21:14-15) I knew your hatred and wicked intentions towards Me without a cause. (2 Kings 19:27)

After Lucifer persuaded you, iniquity was also found in your heart. You then wanted your own way and came up to Me in My face to demand your foolish desires and to destroy Me if it was possible. You believed Satan's lies, thinking that if you, along with the others, were the majority because your "spirit-source" came from Me, and so, combining ^{1a}the oneness of your spirits together, the opportunity of becoming "God" was possible. (Read 1a reference notes listed earlier.) You did this because you, along with all the rebellious angel-gangsters, were unaware of all my powerful attributes (All-Powerful, All-Knowing, All-Present, etc.), knowing the beginning and ending of all thoughts, including yours, your motives, your decisions, etc. Also, you never knew that I was also a God of wrath.

Because you demanded your own way before Me, so then, on earth, you got it! (Rev. 12:7-10) There, you were shackled to a physical body and did remand, "prison time!" (Ps. 102:19-20, Isaiah 42:6-7, 53:8-9, 61:1) There you created your own gods (embracing the gods of your circle of friends) and worshipped them. You created your own rules (embracing the rules of your circle of friends) and lived by them...

...For this reason, it leaves Me no other remedy but to pass judgment on you. You will "remember" but will "never" see beauty (or anything beautiful) and happiness again. You will "remember" but will "never" have pleasure or friends again. You will "never" have joy, peace, and love again. You will "never" smile and laugh again. You will "never" hear music playing again; just weeping, wailing, and gnashing of teeth! You will “never” see this side of eternity again, and you will “never” see light or any form of lighting again. (Ps. 49:19) Depart from Me; ye cursed, ye vile, ye wicked servant; prepare to meet your destiny! You will “never” escape the Lake of Fire that was prepared for YOU! You will burn, weep, and wail forever! And therefore, prepare “NEVER!” to see my face again, YOU FOOL!

The Universe is Mine! I created it!
I AM The Most High! I AM
The Self-Sufficient One! I AM The Self-Sustaining
One! I AM All-Powerful and need “nothing” to sustain My
Powers! I AM Order!
I AM The Word! I
AM The Creator!
I AM,
GOD!!!

...When He loudly said, “I AM, GOD!!!” His voice “roared” echoing into the galactic sky, violently shaking and vibrating the entire universe, including the lake of the fiery world to His upper left. (Isaiah 13:13, Jeremiah 25:30, Joel 3:16, Hebrews 12:26) Everyone felt the massive strength and energy of those words and knew it came from the Creator Himself.

God then repeated Himself saying, “Who lied to you and told you that you can attain ‘God’ status?” He quickly raised His hand, pointed His finger at the Lake of Fire, and said: “Then go to him, thou fool! Let him advise you there.”

Immediately following, a monstrous, fiery hand came out of the Lake of Fire, soaring high into the galactic sky with a tremendous amount of speed, along with a chilling, frightening sound. Then turning downward, heading towards where...who were on a pavement that was specially created for them...the end of the hand still somehow attached to The Lake of Fire entrance.

The massive hand slammed into the entire area where..., grabbing everything within its claws (including the pavement) along with a loud noise. The powerful slam was so forceful, that the gigantic hand continued racing downward with its prey into the endless bottom area. Its depth was filled with light but appeared endless to the eyes. The hand went with great speed after a loud thunderous crash slamming into where....

The hand eventually slowed down and reversed its direction by pulling everything within its grip into the Lake of Fire. As quickly as the hand came, it left. The hand quickly pulled everything within its claws into the lake's entrance. From the screams heard...they shrieked out in pain of horror and terror with a loud burst for mercy, but mercy was denied (the window of mercy expired); after which their voices were heard no more...

“Stay yourselves, and wonder; cry ye out, and cry: they are drunken, but not with wine; they stagger, but not with strong drink. For the LORD hath poured out upon you the spirit of deep sleep, and hath closed your eyes: the prophets and your rulers, the seers hath he covered. And the vision of all is become unto you as the words of a book that is sealed, which men deliver to one that is learned, saying, Read this, I pray thee: and he saith, I cannot; for it is sealed: And the book is delivered to him that is not learned, saying, Read this, I pray thee: and he saith, I am not learned. Wherefore the Lord said, Forasmuch as this people draw near me with their mouth, and with their lips do honour me, but have removed their heart far from me, and their fear toward me is taught by the precept of men: Therefore, behold, I will proceed to do a marvelous work among this people, even a marvelous work and a wonder: for the wisdom of their wise men shall perish, and the understanding of their prudent men shall be hid.” (Isaiah 29:9-14)

Excerpts above were taken from an unpublished work called: A Breathtaking View Inside the Corporate World of GOD.

Why did you hate Me?

Why did you want Me to destroy you? Why did you want Me to destroy someone I love dearly in the Lake of Fire? I created you; I love you; I wanted you to live eternally with Me. Why did you hate Me without a cause: with the old hatred? You hated Me; you hated My Word; and you hated My people. Why did you allow this unjustified hate to blind you from the truth? I am the truth and the life.

How was it that you were bold enough to come up and demand of Me? Who lied to you and told you that you could? Who lied to you to cause you to hate Me without a cause? I am love and will not command you to hate anyone; only their sins. So, if someone told you to hate others (especially Me, My Word or My people), those instructions were not from Me. They were from Satan, who is the father of all lies, and used his wicked warlords to perpetrate his lies. Why did you not choose to correct this unjustified hate: the old hatred problem? My arms were opened and stretched out to you.

Haven't you read My Word? (Lev. 19:17-18, 34, Ps. 139:21-24) What! Is there unrighteousness with Me? (Romans 9:13-15) There is none; I know not any! I am God! I am the Creator! Haven't My Word said that "...vengeance is mine; I will repay..." (Rom. 12:19)? Hence, "See that none render evil for evil unto any man..." (1 Thes. 5:15) But, "Be not overcome of evil, but overcome evil with good." (Rom. 12:21)

I parted the Red Sea; an act that was never done or heard of before by any gods. So then, why did you hate Me? I raised the dead; even I raised Myself! This was never done before, which was "evidently" proven to many and their numerous testimonies that were not heard of regarding any gods (from whom there is "NO!" eye-witnessing-martyrdom, stand-behind support). So then, why did you hate Me? I took out a people for My name and saved them from My wrath to come. (You too, by your very own choice, could have been a part of this group). So then, why did you hate Me? Have you ever heard or seen any gods perform the miracles you read about in My Word and in your history? (Deut. 4:32-36) So then, why did you hate Me?

Why did you not ask yourself the hard questions? Why did you not demand from yourself answers to them? Why did you flee and close your mind and your heart from answers to them? Why did you hate Me by following the deeds of your fathers? Why did you place your forefathers' council above My Word?

Even though you were taught growing up not to hate without a cause, yet you aligned yourself with others who did, only to satisfy your greedy appetite and motive for social and financial gain. And even though you may have chosen not to follow your fathers' religious traditions to hate Me, yet you still embraced and supported their ideological views that hated Me and tried to destroy Me, My Word, and My people.

You hated Me without a cause and therefore refused to accept My salvation plan (My Pardon Agreement). You allowed pride to fill your heart and pretend as though I did not exist. You refused to accept My solution for sin. Also, you allowed lust and greed for the world to be so strong in your life that you personally (deep down inside) wanted nothing to do with Me or My sin solution, even if it succeeded on your behalf (covering ALL of your sinful or evil overpowering acts) without you having to work to attain, achieve, or fix them yourself.

You hated My Word and therefore rejected it. You hated My people and so you refused their message. You hated My salvation plan, wanting nothing to do with it. You hated Me without a cause.

What you did to My Word, you did to Me. What you did to My people, you did to Me.

When you hated My Word or My people, you hated Me. When you tried to destroy both My Word and My people, you tried to destroy Me. What you did to the least of them, you did to Me. (Matthew 25:40)

1 Why God came Himself - REASON ONE -

The LORD Himself proclaimed in Exodus 34:6-7: “...The LORD, The LORD God, merciful and gracious, longsuffering, and abundant in goodness and truth, Keeping mercy for thousands, forgiving iniquity and transgression and sin, and that will by no means clear the guilty; visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children, and upon the children’s children, unto the third and to the fourth generation.”

David, from his own experience, confirmed the above proclamation by saying: “But thou, O Lord, art a God full of compassion, and gracious, longsuffering, and plenteous in mercy and truth.” (Ps. 86:15) He continues: “But the mercy of the LORD is from everlasting to everlasting upon them that fear him, and his righteousness unto children’s children.” “They shall abundantly utter the memory of thy great goodness, and shall sing of thy righteousness. The LORD is gracious, and full of compassion; slow to anger, and of great mercy. The LORD is good to all: and his tender mercies are over all his works.” (Ps. 103:17, 145:7-9)

The men in the Book of Nehemiah Chapter 9 verses 4 to 5, also, from their personal experiences, confirmed God’s proclamation above. They said: “...but thou art a God ready to pardon, gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and forsookest them not.” (Neh. 9:17)

So then: “Who is like unto thee, O LORD, among the gods? who is like thee, glorious in holiness, fearful in praises, doing wonders...” (Ex. 15:11) “...for what God is there in heaven or in earth, that can do according to thy works, and according to thy might?” (Deut. 3:24) Let him come forth! Finally, “Who is a God like unto thee, that pardoneth iniquity, and passeth by the transgression of the remnant of his heritage? he retaineth not his anger for ever, because he delighteth in mercy.” (Micah 7:18)

Is God gracious, or “Hath God forgotten to be gracious? Hath he in anger shut up his tender mercies?” (Psalm 77:9) Is the above true about God? Can you truly answer this question? If the above is true, then God WILL provide a way of escape from the wrath to come, or His proclamation in Exodus 34:6-7 is untrue.

If He is the God of wrath ONLY, then the above proclamation is untrue. His reputation and character would then be at stake and would be challenged. We then would have grounds to be able to accuse Him in the courtroom of His Holy presence. (Job 23:3-7, Isaiah 45:11, Micah 6:3)

If the majority of humanity is on a pathway to eternal suffering in the Lake of Fire with no hope of returning or escaping (Matt. 7:13), then to sit back and allow it to continue with no strong (visible to all) solution or some type of very powerful (or mighty) effort to repair or fix the problem, is not the character of a loving God. Yes! God is indeed a God of wrath; but to also be the God of absolute love and wrath combined (to their fullest degree), His character would then automatically provide a way of escape, restoration, restitution, redemption, and salvation at the highest level.

If this had not occurred, then the description of Him would be unfitting, incorrect, or untrue. If God had sat back and shown no involvement in restoring humanity to a place of repentance, forgiveness, or restoration with Him, then we all would use this as our defense in the courtroom of His Holy presence. We will desperately hunt, passionately search, and pick at any death-grip defense as our ammunition (biblical commonsense points, scriptural truths, or the strongest argument possible as our defense) to prevent us from being cast into the Lake of Fire forever; never to return or see God's face or His blessing and protection again. Imagine hearing the following death sentence from God mentioned earlier.

The ONLY person undoubtedly with absolute certainty who could pay in full the world's sin debt is God Himself. No one else recorded in the ONLY scripture given to us by God Himself can fulfill this most difficult, dark, and full of hardship task. (Read, "The Ultimate Sacrificial Act..." at the end of this document.) God is the ONLY one who knows ALL that is required, and He is the ONLY one who can meet ALL of the requirements. This is because He is "absolutely" ALL GOD!

To demonstrate extreme love toward His creation (John 15:13-14), for this reason, God had to come Himself as the greatest sacrifice to pay the ultimate and awesome price for the sins of the world. If He had sent someone else, then this would not have been the greatest. If He had just simply destroyed all those who had infected themselves with sin (or the evil disease), then not to provide the greatest sacrifice possible was not a character of God Himself. Remember, then, God is God of everything, including the God of sacrifices. No sacrifices can be greater than the God-sacrifice: the ultimate sacrifice!

The ultimate sacrifice means that there can absolutely be no other sacrifice greater than it: past, present, and future. His sacrificial gift to us was, is, and will always be the extreme, greatest, maximum, supreme, epitome, and peak it can and will ever be. There was, is, and will never be any other solutions greater than it. There can be no other plans that can top it. As a result, God's LOVE shines highly and brightly through ALL because of what He did.

Therefore, God came Himself as a ransom to pay for the sins of the world for two reasons: because of His Great Love for His creation; and because the only ultimate price that could have been paid was Himself. This was so that the accuser of the brethren would have no defense: there would be no existing argument in the universe to prove that God did not fix the problem with the best solution and everything possible; and there were no others, greater, that top this way to fix it. Therefore, He came Himself; and no one else. After this, Satan cannot accuse God any longer. He suffered Himself under the hand of Satan for the sins of the world. He created evil; the ability to disobey Him ("For by him were all things created, that are in heaven, and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether they be thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers: all things were created by him, and for him. And he is before all things, and by him all things consist." Is. 45:7, Col. 1:16-17); and as a result, sin came. Therefore, He offered Himself to pay for the damage evil caused to His creation. Those who placed (or "restored") their faith and trust in Him, go scot-free. (For the meaning of the word "restored" used here, read the earlier section called, "Imagine experiencing the uprising War in Heaven!")

God was the ONLY one who knew ALL that was required, and He was the ONLY one capable of meeting ALL the requirements.

The only person who could have successfully and flawlessly paid off our sin debt is the person who created all things including evil: the ability to disobey Him. God is Sovereign and All-Powerful! He didn't need to be a substitute to solve our sin problem. But because He loved us so much and was so desperate for us to choose Him and live eternally with Him rather than spend eternity in the Lake of Fire, He wanted the best solution to resolve our sin problem; to "ETERNALLY" be the best; and if so, an "off-balance" world (without evil or without good and evil co-existing together) was then legitimate. (Read, "Imagine experiencing the uprising WAR in Heaven, above for this explanation.) His intense suffering and sacrifice were sufficient proof of His Love for His creation; nothing greater could have been possible.

If all evil deeds were paid for in full, from start to finish, then there would be no reason to allow “evil” to continue to coexist along with “good.” If all evil deeds were paid for in full, then eliminating evil from God’s creation would be legitimate. With or without it, the correct balance will still stand. This would be the result of an Ultimate Sacrificial Act that paid for all evil acts. Therefore, there would be no further reason to retain it. God will permanently remove it from His active creation. His people will then live eternally without it. It will NEVER exist, show forth, or manifest itself again. “...the LORD...he will make an utter end: affliction shall not rise up the second time.” (Nahum 1:9)

The records show in His eternal Word that He did it ALL by Himself. He came Himself so that His ultimate sacrifice would be the greatest (Gen. 22:8), and nothing in all eternity, from everlasting to everlasting, will ever top it. Nothing will ever be greater than it. No love demonstrated in all eternity will ever take its place. His sacrificial act was, is, and will always be a very painfully deep and powerfully passionate “Love Story” for all of God’s creation.

2 Why God came Himself - REASON TWO -

The document called, “Evidence of Jesus (God) Being Conceived Human with Zero Wisdom, Knowledge and Understanding,” found at www.apublicviewing.com, should be read first for a clearer understanding of this section. Readers should then return here and continue reading this section.

Jesus was the Word. (John 1:1, 14) He knew all the Old Testament by heart, word for word, when He was born. He was and still is the Word. The words of the Old Testament came gifted or planted into His consciousness. No one taught it to Him when He was born, (He was gifted with it) because He was IT! Its presence manifested itself in Him. (Is. 11:1-3) (This was because He emptied Himself of all His All-Knowingness before He came to the earth through the channel of birth. [Luke 2:40, 52] Read the document listed at the beginning of this section for more on this.)

“...Lo, I come (in the volume of the book it is written of me,) to do thy will, O God...Sacrifice and offering and burnt offerings and offering for sin thou wouldest not, neither hadst pleasure therein; which are offered by the law; Then said he, Lo, I come to do thy will, O God...” (Heb. 10:7-9)

Like a gifted chess player who was not taught the skills of the game but became the world’s chess champion. Like the young child (1 Kings 3:7), Solomon became the wisest man on the planet in his day, and like Samson, who was the strongest man ever lived. Like great Christian scholars born years before our time, they were gifted and could have spoken several foreign languages fluently, but they were never taught the foreign language in the classroom. (When the Holy Spirit comes upon someone, as He did in the Book of Acts Chapter Two, His gift award was and is always comprehensively powerful.)

God did not choose to use someone who knows nothing about evil. Angels were not qualified because they had no knowledge of evil. They knew nothing of evil until Lucifer and his followers became corrupt and were all cast out of heaven. Look what happened when they found out about evil; they corrupted themselves and fell.

To become a sacrifice to pay the world’s sin debt, one must know evil (the sin he is paying for) and choose whether (or not) to embrace (or accept) it. The scripture teaches that Jesus “DID” no sin. (John 8:46) If He was the Word, He then knows of sin and its consequences. Because He was the Word, He knew sin from the Garden of Eden and all that was done and written as a result. Besides this, He was in the world and, therefore, saw and knew how sinful it was.

To fight evil by yourself, you had to first know evil (the enemy) and what to do to fight back. All humans came lying and stealing, etc., and did not know if it was wrong or right (Ps. 58:3), but it was still sin with no excuse, and sin still disobeyed God's law.

Notice what is said of the little ones (Deut. 1:39) among the children of Israel in the wilderness: "...which ye said should be a prey, and your children, which in that day had no knowledge between good and evil, they shall go in thither, and unto them will I give it, and they shall possess it." Based on this premise and others, we can also say that all little ones with no knowledge of good and evil, and who have passed away in death, will enter into the Kingdom of Heaven by the blood of Jesus Christ who paid for ALL sins.

However, because Jesus was the Word at birth, He was gifted with all of the Old Testament scriptures and, therefore, He knew evil.

This was justifiable because He was and is God. Satan, therefore, could not then accuse Him of this gift. If a high-ranking angel like himself (Satan) was chosen to come, then he would have grounds somewhat to accuse God of the unfairness of this gift awarded at such an early phase in the angel's physical and earthly life. The angel would have to learn good and evil. But the Word (John 1:1), came knowing good and evil because the Word, the Old Testament (and the New), was and is God!

Thus, an angel with no knowledge of sin and its consequences would not have succeeded as Jesus did without interference from God. Satan may have well and legitimately attempted to accuse God of unfairness and interfering in a world where he (Lucifer) was a god.

The human sacrifice MUST know "Good" and "Evil."

"And the LORD God commanded the man, saying, Of every tree of the garden thou mayest freely eat: But of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, thou shalt not eat of it..." The knowledge of good and evil was not what brought about sin or the downfall of Adam and Eve (representing man). It was disobeying God's command that did. The forbidden fruit, no doubt was poison and brought about aging and death to the human cell. Disobeying God brought about sin: pride, lust, and greed (also, spiritual death), which became the source for all other sins. (1 John 2:16) "When pride cometh, then cometh shame..." (Proverbs 11:2) Adam and Eve then covered their nakedness as a result. Hence, "...when lust hath conceived, it bringeth forth sin: and sin, when it is finished, bringeth forth death." (James 1:15)

To undo what was done in the Garden of Eden (representing Heaven), the sacrifice (originally, blood from a sinless, innocent, "unknowledgeable-of-good-and-evil" person in a sinless world...) MUST now (after the fall) be knowledgeable of both good and evil. If Adam and Eve had remained in a sinless state (they obeyed God's command by not eating the forbidden fruit), then deliverance (salvation, pardon, redemption, etc.) for sin that entered into heaven would arise from another place (the God-sacrifice taking another route, pathway, or direction), but "who knoweth whether thou" (Adam and Eve and their fall into sin) "art come to the kingdom for such a time as this?" (Esther 4:14)

How could someone with no knowledge of "evil" in a sinful world, tackle someone who has complete knowledge of both? Both opponents MUST together know "good" and "evil," or one will outwit the other: the opponent who knows the power and strength of both "good" and "evil."

Think about it for a moment as a boxing match between two opponents: The one who only knows "Good" battles the other person who knows both “Good” and “Evil.” The dual-knowledge opponent has the edge. He can switch to “Good” to lure his opponent into a trap, then afterward, strike with Evil that is foreign to his opponent who ONLY knows “Good,” then pull him in for the “KILL.”

Thus, who alone created and knew “Good” and “Evil” before Lucifer and his angels were cast out? This person meets the qualifications to become a human sacrifice. “...For unto the angels hath he not put in subjection the world to come, whereof we speak...For verily he took not on him the nature of angels; but he took on him the seed of Abraham...” (Heb 2:1-18)

If God was and is the Word and the Word was made flesh (John 1:1, 14), then all the contents of the Word (the written, spoken, and living Word), Jesus came or was born gifted with them. (In other words, and once again repeating what was mentioned earlier, He willingly placed aside or emptied Himself at conception of His “All-Knowing” characteristics and took on all the attributes, responsibilities, obligations, etc., of a human Son. [Phil. 2:6-8]) Thus, He knew, was, and is the Book of Genesis. He knew, was, and is the Book of Exodus. The same is true for the rest of the Old Testament scriptures, and afterward, the New Testament scriptures as well. (Ps. 119:89)

Like Jesus Christ, who was the Word, who was God (John 1:1, 14), embodied with flesh and was the only physical representation of God (that we could have once touch, feel, handle, hold, and speak to) is also with us today, embodied with words that are placed on the pages of a physical book that we can touch, feel, handle, hold, and read from. You may ask: How is this possible? Only God knows because, with Him, ALL THINGS ARE POSSIBLE with the Written, Spoken, and Living Word oneness! (For more on this, read, “The Secret to Building Powerful Faith,” found at: www.apublicviewing.com)

Evil hates good, which is why there are “evil” spirits. God is Good, and so evil hates God. Evil (the ability to disobey God) was created by Him but was dormant, lurking in darkness and waiting for the moment when it could break free from its dark abyss. Evil spirits (who were once good spirits) are a manifestation of totally all that is evil with absolutely no good element within that is present. They are completely wiped clean of all that is good. Therefore, they are non-negotiable manifestations of evil and can only produce, perform, and carry out evil enterprises or undertakings. There are three living entities (or voices) present when critical decisions are made: Good, Evil, and evil’s descendants. Evil seems to have a strong presence where many of its prey (or descendants) fall victim to its tactful devices. (Rom. 7:18-23) Hence, “Be not overcome of evil, but overcome evil with good.” (Rom. 12:21; also, Rom. 2:9, 12:9, 17, 12)

Any argument from Satan (that Jesus’ “gift,” awarded at birth was illegal), is defeated due to the fact of Him (Jesus) being GOD. Satan have no defense against it; he cannot argue against it. The Almighty, (the living Word) left His throne, humbled Himself, and became a human. He clothed Himself in human flesh. (John 1:1, 14) He knew there was never and will never be a greater act than this; a greater love than this; and a greater sacrifice than this. (Just the thought of the Creator of the universe bending so low; unbelievably low; “stink-animal-stable-status” low; to become one of us is staggering.)

The Bible proved to us that evidence of zero wisdom, knowledge, and understanding with all human conceptions with no exceptions, is correct. For proof of this, if you have not yet already done so, log on to: www.apublicviewing.com and read the document called, “Evidence of Jesus (God) Being Conceived Human with Zero Wisdom, Knowledge and Understanding.”

Thus, Satan had “NO CASE” on Jesus when He came to earth knowing evil. Not conceived as a human with this knowledge but gifted with it at birth. (Isaiah 11:1-3): He emptied Himself of it before conception. Hence, the only legitimately qualified person who could have come is God Himself. Anyone else would have to learn evil from the beginning, starting at birth. They would no doubt fail when tackling the evil component and opponent, who knows all evil tactics.

Praise God for His awesome love and humility! He could have ended us and started something new. (He was sorry for creating man. [Gen. 6:5-7]) But instead, He decided to leave His glorious home, enter this sinful sewer, and extend His open, loving arms to reach out to those of us who want deliverance from this filthy, doomed place. Which one of us would have entered our sewer or septic tank, searching for a penny that fell to the bottom of this awfully stink and filthy pit, filled, over our heads, with feces, scavenger insects (like cockroaches), and eating bacteria? Think of what GOD had to do when comparing man to this vast universe He created.

A promise to you from GOD: To all ye inhabitants of the world and dwellers on the earth.

If I “commanded” words to a thousand generations (Deuteronomy 7:9, 1 Chronicles 16:15, Psalm. 105:8), do you think those words will get lost or go missing? Haven't I then promised to preserve My Word throughout the generations and forever? (Psalm 12:6-7) Is this too hard for Me to do? (Jeremiah 32:17, 27) Can you prove I didn't? If I didn't, then you have a case against Me in the courtroom of “My” Holy presence. (Job 23:3-7, Isaiah 45:11, Micah 6:3) This will surely “never!” happen because I GOD, I Am, the Word! (Exodus 3:14, John 1:1, 8:58, 12:48, Rev. 19:13)

If My Word or any part of it can get lost or go missing, then I too can also get lost or go missing. Do you believe scholars who say “this” and “that” are lost or missing from My Word, or do you believe Me? (Ps. 56:5) Choose between the two: your scholars or Me, the Word! Haven't I spoken and it was done? Haven't I commanded and it stood fast? (Ps. 33:9, 148:2-5, Is. 14:24, 46:10-11) Investigate Me! Can I or any part of Me get lost or go missing?

Scrutinize the history of My Word; all conflicting sides, and you will find Me! (Is. 34:16) But take heed, lest ye despise My Word and therefore despise Me! (Num. 15:31, Is. 5:24, 30:12-13, Mark 8:38, Heb. 3:12)

For hundreds of years, I chose Hebrew “ONLY” to write, preserve, and carry My Word around the world, to all ye inhabitants of the world, and dwellers on the earth. (1 Kings 8:41-43, 2 Chr. 6:32-33, 9:23, 20:29, Ps. 46:10, Isaiah 18:3) Afterward, I used Greek and Latin. So then, couldn't I use any language “ONLY” (or languages) to do the same? Remember that I am the Word!

Search the scriptures: When “the word of the LORD said” (or “the word of the LORD came unto me, saying”), that was Me, the Word, speaking. When “the words of the LORD said” (or “the LORD hath spoken”), that was what I had already said. I, the Word was there in the beginning with God and was GOD! (Genesis 1:1, John 1:1) So then, read all of Me! Every word! (Matt. 4:4) Feed on Me! (John 6:33-58)

All of your information regarding Me, the Word, came from three sources: books, teachers, and your very own, personal experiences. You then, personally and by yourself, along with influence from others, choose which of the information you will believe and accept as truth. Remember that, I am the truth! (Deut. 32:4, John 14:6)

Ask Me “first” to steer your thoughts, then carefully and cautiously by yourself, examine the sources I will send you, and you WILL find Me! (Deut. 30:11-14) My Word is alive (John 6:63), intact, and is within your reach. Today! Even NOW! Search for Me! (Deut. 4:29, Jer. 29:13)

Psalm 12:6-7, 33:11, 100:5, 119:89, 160, 138:2, Ecc. 3:14, Is. 40:8, Matt. 4:4, 24:35, Mark 13:31, Luke 21:33, Heb. 10:7, and 1 Peter 1:23, 25. So then, you can believe Num. 23:19, Is. 14:24, 27, and Jer. 32:17, 27.

Otherwise, see Rom. 14:23, Heb. 10:38, and 11:6.

3 Why God came Himself - REASON THREE -

The old saying goes that a leader must lead by example. Therefore, God stopped at nothing to demonstrate this true saying. No one in all eternity could point a finger at Him and say that He didn't. He excels in everything and everyone that can. No one has anything on Him.

If God had made alive or created a human judge and given him all the knowledge of good and evil; all the knowledge of an all-knowing person or all the knowledge of how to even preside over God Himself. If God had given this judge the ability, and all the knowledge to judge what is just, right, the correct balance, perfection, flawlessness, etc., then placed him to examine and scrutinize all the pathways God took; to investigate all methods and routes He pursued to redeem His creation; to examine God's character, motives and His response to the world's sin problem, then his verdict toward God would be: NOT GUILTY! Not guilty overall; and all over. Every piece that makes up a whole of God's performance, choices, decisions, etc., all, would be absolutely perfect or just! The simple act of giving one's life so that many can live is the greatest act of love known to mankind. There is no other act greater. (John 15:13)

God is a God of Love: Love with a passion; agape love, and all of the characteristics of love. God is the Alpha and Omega; the first and the last. He is the originator of ALL things and the terminator of them. Paying for the world's sin debt was a new element that came into existence. Therefore, if God is who He said He was, then, this new element would have been created or originated, and initiated by Him, and no one else.

Colossians 1:15-18

"Who is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of every creature: For by him were all things created, that are in heaven, and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether they be thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers: all things were created by him, and for him: And he is before all things, and by him all things consist. And he is the head of the body, the church: who is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead; that in all things he might have the preeminence."

What does firstborn mean in Romans 8:29, Colossians 1:18, and Hebrews 12:23? Also, what does firstborn mean in Matthew 1:25, Luke 2:7, and Hebrews 11:28? Are these meanings the same or different? Doesn't one mean, "the first one for the first time to be resurrected from the dead with a glorified body," and the other one mean, "the first one to be born into any family?" Which of these "firstborn" meanings applies to Col. 1:15? (Read Colossians 1:18, and Acts 26:23 for the answer, especially the statements: "...that he should be the first that should rise from the dead..." and "...that in all things he might have the PREEMINENCE.")

Now notice, "the beginning" is attributed to Him in v. 18, which is the same in Rev. 1:8, 21:6, and 22:13. Therefore, we can truly see, understand, and appreciate why a colon (:) is at the end of verse 15 (...first born of every creature: For by him...). Jesus is the Source, Originator, Beginning, the Alpha, or the First of anything and everything (ALL THINGS) that began and that exist. (Read, Col. 1:16-17.) We also know that he is the end-all, terminator, or the annihilator of anything and everything that ends (that is, ALL THINGS).

Rising from the dead with a glorified body was a new phenomenon (and a new type of creation) that needed to come into existence. Therefore, He, Himself, was the source, originator, creator, and beginner of "being born from the dead," using the same body He died in, and therefore, became the first one to partake of this new type of creation.

He was the first human to rise from the dead with a glorified body; that is, He resurrected Himself (John 2:19-21) and therefore, He became the “FIRSTBORN FROM THE DEAD.”

So now, Jesus is the head of the body called “the church” (Colossians 1:18) and also, “the general assembly and church of the firstborn” (Heb. 12:23); which is the church of the Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ.

For more information, read this section and all related information and links in the document called, “Is Jesus Christ God...” found at www.apublicviewing.com.

At the Garden of Eden scene, the ultimate sacrificial machinery started its engine. By the time Jesus entered into the world through birth, the engine was at full throttle. The Ultimate Sacrificial Act was ready to take off and fly.

As prophesied in scripture, everything from that point on began falling into place. It was pre-checked, so to speak, and received the “runway clearance.” This entire spectrum became visible to the now-future world; but, unfortunately, not to those who were alive at the time. A new phenomenon was about to begin. A new episode was about to enter our world. A new creation was about to take shape. As it took seven (7) days to complete the creation of all things good, this new event took many generations to be ready for full-throttle to complete, create, and repair all things evil.

However, the person who will be pulling off the greatest act in the history of the world will then be the person who will receive the greatest cheering and the highest honor. He will be the person who is exalted and thanked for the dark and difficult (full of hardship) task. This person will receive in all eternity the highest praise; the highest worship; the highest glory and the highest gratitude, appreciation, recognition, gratefulness, acknowledgment, credit, and thanksgiving. (1 Cor. 1:29)

This person would be capable of boasting about his achievements for saving the world if he was an angel. Who alone then, will or could this person be? Who alone would be allowed to receive this highest praise and honor? To whom would all of it be attributed?

Who alone will receive (according to Revelation 5:8-14) this unprecedented and massive world of praise and gratitude for the Ultimate Sacrificial Act of saving the world from the prison chains of sin and death? Only the Lamb of God Himself (Gen. 22:8) will be the person who receives such great honor. Anyone else will rob God of such glory. Anyone else will steal or take the highest praise from God.

Thus, absolutely, without any doubt, this Act could only be performed by God Himself. Anyone else will rob Him of the world of glory and honor He would receive. He performed this heroic and extremely difficult task Himself so that “...in all things he might have the preeminence.” (Col. 1:15-18)

God’s Ultimate Sacrificial Act was a new creation, and therefore, God is the preeminence of it. He was the one and only “first-born” of this new phenomenon and the only person capable of performing this new creation act. Besides that, this act is “good” in all things. Giving one’s life to save others is the greatest love act displayed on the planet; and therefore, this is the love act God had displayed to us.

God could have easily taken a “no-show” (or a “no-solution act”) approach to our sin problem where we all simply would not have known, in any way, the necessary wages and solution required for all evil (or sinful) acts. But, because He is just and perfect in ALL His ways, the right and correct wage-and-solution journey had to be taken. This sadly encompasses all humanity’s sinful, free will choices, that created poverty, slavery, intense violently wicked, and petty crimes, blasphemy, cursing God, etc. This also includes, “...Being filled with all unrighteousness, fornication wickedness, covetousness, maliciousness; full of envy, murder, debate, deceit, malignity; whisperers, Backbiters, haters of God, despiteful, proud, boasters, inventors of evil things, disobedient to parents, Without understanding, covenantbreakers, without natural affection, implacable, unmerciful...” etc. (Romans 1:22-32)

If all of the events that took place according to the Old and New Testament scripture were indeed a solution, but, were not

REVELATION 5:8-14

And when he had taken the book, the four beasts and four and twenty elders fell down before the Lamb, having every one of them harps, and golden vials full of odours, which are the prayers of saints. And they sung a new song, saying, Thou art worthy to take the book, and to open the seals thereof: for thou wast slain, and hast redeemed us to God by thy blood out of every kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation; And hast made us unto our God kings and priests: and we shall reign on the earth. And I beheld, and I heard the voice of many angels round about the throne, and the beasts, and the elders: and the number of them was ten thousand times ten thousand, and thousands of thousands; Saying with a loud voice, Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honour, and glory, and blessing. And every creature which is in heaven, and on the earth, and under the earth, and such as are in the sea, and all that are in them, heard I saying, Blessing, and honour, and glory, and power, be unto him that sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb for ever and ever. And the four beasts said, Amen. And the four and twenty elders fell down and worshipped him that liveth for ever and ever.

First, read the full meaning of “glory” in a GOOD dictionary. Secondly, read Isaiah 42:8, Mark 8:38, John 5:23, 13:31-32, and 17:5. Now, thirdly, compare Revelation 5:11-14 with Revelation 7:11-12 and explain who the persons are conducting the praise and worship time in both references. The answer: “the angels.” To whom are the persons in both references praising and worshipping? The answer is “the Lamb” in Revelation 5:12 and the person referred to as “HIM that sitteth upon the throne” in Revelation 5:13 and God in Revelation 7:11-12. All three members of God are present. (The “Him” also includes the third member of God: the Holy Spirit.

pursued or performed (even though we humans are limited in knowledge to all the requirements of a sin solution), it would have “punch holes” in God’s sovereignty, His integrity, His love, His justness (a just balance), etc. God would have ceased being God, and the created human judge mentioned earlier in this section who would have been knowledgeable in an absolute sense (in all the knowledge of resolving a sin problem), would have then closed his case with accusations and arguments put forward against God. He would have defeated God’s judgment defense in the courtroom of His Holy presence. He would have won his case brought against God.

Imagine then such a person who would be full of wisdom being none other than Lucifer himself. (Ezekiel 28:12-18) This crooked, lying “prosecution lawyer” with an inevitable, eternal-suffering death sentence hanging over his head. If he cannot convince the universe that God had not pursued all avenues to solving our sin problem; with all his vast knowledge of events that occurred, and all of the strategic communication abilities and skills available to him to try and accuse God. If he FAILED to achieve a GUILTY verdict against Him (or FAILED in his line of reasoning to destroy God’s sin solution act); FAILED to accuse God of unfairness; FAILED to accuse God of His self-proclamation in Exodus 34:6-7; then the Ultimate Sacrificial Act of God to resolve our sin problem was the greatest Act possible.

In conclusion, “Forasmuch then as the children are partakers of flesh and blood, he also himself likewise took part of the same; that through death he might destroy him that had the power of death, that is, the devil...” (Heb. 2:14) So again, in “all things he might have the preeminence.” (Col. 1:18)

What are the angels actually saying? They are saying to the Lamb (to God or the Godhead) for ever and ever: power, riches, wisdom, strength, honour, glory, blessing, thanksgiving, and might be unto our God. We see from these verses that the intensity and strength of the word choices used in the praise and worship time the angels conduct in Revelation 5:11-14 and 7:11-12 are the same and directed to both the Lamb and God.

The Lamb in Revelation 5:12 and God in Revelation 7:12 are all being praised using the same strength and intensity of words. Please notice this! What is said to one is said to the other. Now, with Isaiah 42:8 in mind, explain whether God would allow another one of His creations (as some religious groups believe Jesus Christ to be) to receive the same degree of praise and worship that He receives.

Please notice that the Father and Son share the same glorification in John 12:23, 28, 13:31-32, 14:13, Hebrews 1:8, and 1 Peter 4:11. Can you fully explain how God is glorified in ALL THINGS through Jesus Christ in 1 Peter 4:11? Also, explain whether God could have also been glorified without receiving it through Jesus Christ. (Seriously, ponder this question before answering it. [John 14:6])

Now, who is/are the person(s) in our text verse who “liveth for ever and ever?” Is He the Father, the Holy Spirit, the Lamb (Revelation 1:18 and 5:14), or all three of them? (See the section below on Revelation 22:1-5 regarding the one who will reign for ever and ever.)

If you say that Jesus Christ did not live for ever and ever and that, consequently, this verse does not include Him because He was “dead” once, then can you explain what Jesus meant in Matthew 22:31-32, John 2:19-22 (notice the word “I” and read the previous discussion of Colossian 2:9 above), John 8:56-58, 11:25-26, and Revelation 10:6 (compared to John 1:1-3 and Colossian 1:15-17)? Read the notes again at John 20:17 above.

What kind of body did Jesus have before clothing Himself with human flesh? Was He Spirit, or did He have a physical body before He came to this earth? Jesus was all Spirit before clothing His Spiritual body with human flesh to become a man (John 4:24). Can you explain what He meant in Heb. 13:8 and whether this verse talks about His physical body?

Now, who will be occupying the same throne in Revelation 5:13 and 22:3? Is He God the Father, the Lamb, the Holy Spirit, or all three of them? (The Holy Spirit, who is also a member of God, will also occupy the same throne.) We know Christ is seated on the right hand of God the Father, and He said in Matthew 19:28 that He will be sitting IN THE THRONE. From this verse, we can say that the Throne is an area where the Son, the Father, and the Holy Spirit are sitting, and because all of them are sitting IN the Throne, all are being worshipped and praised. (This is like a king and queen who sit together in one area and both receive reverence and honor from visitors.)

Remember that worship should only be directed to God (Revelation 19:10 and 22:8-9). Therefore, who is HE? Can you, the reader, honestly, by yourself (without any other source involved), explain Ephesians 1:20-23, especially the word “ALL?”

4 Why God came Himself - REASON FOUR -

God came Himself so that the wicked cannot defend themselves by accusing God of not fully understanding their plight: to walk and to grow up with sin all around you. To be born with zero wisdom, knowledge, and understanding and yet sin shortly after birth. (Ps. 58:3) By the time humanity reaches the age of accountability (knowing good and evil, right and wrong), sin (evil) addiction will be “almost?” impossible to conquer or overpower. (“...for the imagination of man’s heart is evil from his youth...” [Gen. 8:21]) Yet, at this stage of knowing good and evil, humanity could choose not to sin, but instead, become perfect.

“Be ye therefore perfect, even as your Father which is in heaven is perfect.” (Mat. 5:48) “...For I am the LORD that bringeth you up out of the land of Egypt, to be your God: ye shall therefore be holy, for I am holy.” (Lev. 11:44-45) God came to prove that man can live a perfect life among and in the midst of an imperfect world. And therefore, in the courtroom of His Holy presence, humanity has no excuse; nothing to answer back regarding sinful acts among sinful people. Who would this “perfection of life” be to gauge, standardize, measure, or compare ourselves with if God did not come Himself? Desperate and eternally doomed wicked individuals with a guilty death sentence verdict that hangs over their heads will argue that there was and is no evidence, no proof (an actual event that took place to prove or align itself with) that a perfect human in a sinful environment world was possible.

God came Himself so that, in all His creation, there are no doubts that it was possible. The already proven journey by Jesus is evidence it was possible, and therefore, humanity has no excuse. He came like us, as a human (100%), with zero wisdom, knowledge, and understanding. Therefore, by the choices of humanity, sin triumphs or is defeated. Hence, humanity can choose to be sinless or sinful, but man, INTENTIONALLY fails every time. No matter how hard they try, it is never hard enough, which is possible.

The best person to perform the task ONE-TIME would then be God, the Creator. Others may have had to perform it again and again, over and over, as many times as necessary; and then over and over again. Because God is All-Knowing, He knew what was required ONCE and never again. Therefore, for a one-time-only perfect sacrificial offering, God had to perform the task Himself.

The God-Sacrifice is the ultimate sacrifice that can never be substituted with something or anything else.

Ten Requirements of a human sacrifice to pay for the sins of the world

Who alone was and can meet the following requirements of a human sacrifice to pay the sin debt for the whole world: from the beginning of all evil acts to the ending? (Remember that our spirit person lives within us. We are spirit-soul-body.) Also, keep in mind that it was not just humanity, but ALL sins or all evil acts committed by ALL persons, spiritual and physical. He MUST then have a spiritual and a physical body, representing both the spiritual and the physical world.

1 He must be a perfect human male: sinless and without blemish. He must not be bruised or have any cuts on his body. (Lev. 22:24; Mal. 1:7-14) His bones cannot be crushed, cracked or broken. He must be conceived (not born) with zero wisdom, knowledge, and understanding (like all humans with no exceptions) but gifted with the knowledge of good and evil at birth. (Read the section earlier called, The human sacrifice MUST know “Good” and “Evil.”) He MUST have blood or be a physical person who does. He must be conceived through the natural birth of conception to enter into our physical world to make His human birth legal.

A mere man or sinful humanity was not qualified to become the sacrifice to take away sin or evil. (Ps. 14:1-4, 49:7-9, 53:1-3) What was needed was a spotless, (never sin) God-man.

2 He MUST know or discern ALL the ramifications of both Good and Evil and have the freedom of choice to choose between the two. He must live in a sinful world without any sinful contamination. He MUST always be clean: mentally, physically, and spiritually. He must never be unclean or dirty at any time during his physical life. (A sinless person defies the natural laws of uncleanness...)

How can a perfect man enter an imperfect world and not be contaminated by all elements of sin? This includes all things that are physical and mental. This is a great mystery. All sinful elements could not attach, corrupt, infect, spread, or crossover their components to Him. Instead, according to Scripture, the reverse happened. He was God in human flesh and perfect in every sense. Being God, virtue radiated from His body and spread to those who were either nearby (or far), those who touched Him, or persons who were touched by Him. This was why He touched lepers (a forbidden act of uncleanness according to Moses' law) and still remained physically and mentally clean. (Leviticus 13:1-59, 14:1-57) This explains why He could eat with unwashed hands along with those around Him. (Mat. 15:2, 20)

3 The law of death cannot be applied to him (man cannot take his life, and therefore, He could NOT die from injuries inflicted by man) as long as he remained sinless or perfect. ("...the wages of sin is death" [Rom. 6:23]) Humanity dies because of sin. (Eze. 18:4)

Thus, he must have the power to decide his own physical life and can end it anytime he wishes to do so.

4 The human sacrifice MUST be given over to or placed into the hands of the accuser, the "avenger of blood," or Lucifer for him to administer his desired punishment with no restrictions except broken bones, and to do whatever he wishes.

Two prophetic rules of instruction (like Job 1:12, 2:6) from God that had to be followed: (1) no matter how much He was beaten and bruised, no broken bones were allowed; (2) no matter how intense or brutal the suffering was, it MUST not take His life. He has to lay it down and take it up again by Himself. (John 10:17-18)

Certainly, the elements (or rules) of perfection for a sinless person did not allow any bones to be broken. This was not an "element of perfection" component included in the sacrifice that was set aside. Additionally, it was not that Lucifer and his warlords avoided trying to break his bones with all the force inflicted; His bones just would not break. They could not be broken; they only came out of joint. (Ex. 12:46, Num. 9:12, Psalm 34:20, John 19:36) However, the impacts from the beating were far beyond the capacity to maintain unbroken bones, which was why they just came out of joint. (Ps. 22:14) Naturally, all His bones should have been broken during the intense beating. On another note, when the scripture says that they will "put him to death" (Luke 18:33), it means they will "condemn Him to death" by executing the death sentence. However, only when Jesus gave up the ghost was when He died, and not before, and not by man. (Read, "The Ultimate Sacrificial Act!") later for more on this.)

5 He must gravely and exceedingly suffer and bleed the required amount of blood before the sins (evil) of the whole world can be forgiven. He, therefore, MUST not choose to die unless his suffering and sacrifice were sufficient (This was when God, the Father had forsaken Him, and not before; when He crossover into the planned "redemption boundary," and became sin for all of us.) All of this must occur at a young age. (John 8:57)

He must be a youth. See "young" bullock, calf, or pigeon in the Books of Exodus, Leviticus, and Numbers.

6 He must pay dearly for the sins of the whole world. This debt payment must extend beyond the physical realms; the spiritual realms as well. The sins that entered heaven, someone MUST pay for them as well.

Who else can pay this price but God, Himself? He must pay a debt He did not owe.

7 The suffering MUST be unbearably intense; beyond human imagination. Never before was it so intense, and never again will it be as intense. He MUST bear it without any hatred for the executioners during the process, or for anyone, as a matter of fact. (Is. 52-53) He must love the just and the unjust unconditionally; friends and enemies alike.

8 The human sacrifice MUST be the ultimate or the best offering; nothing higher or better. A perfect person sinned (Adam and Eve), therefore, a perfect person MUST pay the sin debt. All sins that entered the world (including heaven) must be included in His blood sacrifice. A mere man can only die for his own iniquities (Ps. 49:7-9, Jer. 31:30, Ez. 18:20, 22:30) and cannot die for anyone else's. Therefore, he must be more than a mortal man. Man can only pay for his own sins by spending eternity in the Lake of Fire as his punishment.

Thus, the One who created evil (the ability to disobey God: Is. 45:7), and placed it among creation (like "the tree of the knowledge of good and evil" among all the other trees in the garden that were "pleasant to the sight, and good for food"), is the only One with the ability and is qualified to pay the world's sin (evil) debt. Since sinful man must pay for his own iniquities in Hell and the Lake of Fire, when Jesus went to Hell, in the compartment of the condemned, after becoming sin for all of us, He was then cast out because He was trespassing, and technically, there were no iniquities found in Him. (For more information, read, "The Ultimate Sacrificial Act and the surprisingly residing judge called, Hell" later in this document.)

9 The punishment MUST be administered by humans with no exceptions, whether they are possessed by devils or not; whether they are supernaturally assisted or not. The human executioners will represent humanity and Lucifer and/or his demonic host, who could freely choose if they so wish to possess the executioners' bodies, will represent all those who sin in heaven. This is with exception to all those whose iniquities shall not be purged with sacrifice and offering for ever. (1 Sam. 3:14) His suffering and death will pay for ALL sins that entered the universe as a result of evil.

10 He must always subject Himself to His parents at all times and not disrespect or disobey them in any way.

His Father, stepfather and mother.

There are four things Lucifer and his angels did not know in heaven.

Lucifer knew that his life source and power were everlasting and came from God-Eternal, and therefore, he along with his warlords would live forever with this source element and their abilities as long as God does. But, unknown to them, their abilities will all be powerless in the Lake of Fire. Imagine that just before the fall (or the discovery of the evil element) and just before the uprising war in heaven, there were no holding confinements like a type of prison because evil (sin) was unheard of in heaven. (Rev. 12:7-8) Thus, there was no fear of God (there was no need to) in heaven. God, they thought, could never annihilate them because their life source was and is everlasting (as God is eternal) and came from Him. God is Love, and no one can ever be fearful of love they also thought.

A prison confinement, no doubt never existed in the universe, according to the way they were all thinking and the events that had played out. Thus, the elements of the evil act had to have quickly and contagiously spread among the angels.

Logic says: If we do not have an ending, we must never have a beginning. God is Spirit! (John 4:24) He then took a piece of Himself that never had a beginning or an ending (can never cease to exist) and breathed it into man. (Job 27:3, Is. 42:5) It was a spirit-breathing, soul-planting act, not done to any of His other (Genesis 1:3-25) creations, but to man only. Man, then became a living soul (God does not breathe oxygen). Thus, we have a piece of Him (a spirit) inside of us that can never end, and as a result, MUST all spend eternity somewhere.

1 They did not know that God was a God of wrath!

There was previously no sin in heaven and, therefore, no need for God's wrath or fury character to surface or manifest. There was no need for God to display this side of His attributes or character. Sin was never in heaven prior to the fall; therefore, no one saw God's wrath or saw Him angry. Before sin entered heaven, anger, hatred, wrath, fury, destruction, etc., were never displayed or seen. (Perhaps, what helped fuel the rebellion in heaven was the fact that Satan and all those angels who joined the rebellion felt indestructible and were never aware of hell or the Lake of Fire that would have come into existence, as a result of their iniquities or actions.)

2 They did not know that God was All-Knowing!

They did not know that God was All-Knowing. If they had known, then their war strategy would have either been different, or the rebellion in heaven would not have taken place. God was All-Knowing: knowing the beginning, ending, and pathway of all events or trends. Imagine knowing that God knew everything you would do when you were created. The Scripture said that if the man of the house knew when the thief would come, he would not allow the thief to gain entry or his house to be broken into. (Matt. 24:43) If the thief knew that the man of the house knew he was coming to steal and destroy, he would not pursue the task any further. This was because it could cost him his life. Think about it for a moment: If Satan knew that God knows (and foresaw), from the time of his creation, all that he was going to cause in heaven, all the things he would say and do; all of them in exact details, then good, intelligent, common sense would have prevented him from pursuing his agenda. If he knew that God knows all of his thoughts, motives, etc., and everything he would do in the future, he would not have pursued the foolish action he took. (Ps. 73:11-12) There is a mystery beyond angelic and human comprehension regarding someone who is all-knowing. There is a higher rule of law, "past finding out," because if Lucifer was aware that God knew "what time the robber cometh," he would not have moved forward with his plans to break into the "Goodman's" house. This was because God would have been prepared and not 'suffer his house to be broken into,' as he would have thought to himself.

Imagine trying to plan an uprising war in heaven, knowing that God is fully aware of every move you will make, every strategy you will take, and the moment you would plan to execute your wicked intentions, etc. Imagine you know that He knows you will try to destroy Him. (Yet, there are fools who will still try.) What do you think God will do to those whom He knows will still try, even if their wicked and evil plot is known? Those who think that they, along with many others (becoming the majority), combining together in oneness (walking into and uniting with each other), can defeat God? (Three Spiritual persons united together as One, up against an innumerable number of "spiritual" persons who are also united together as one.) Obviously, they are not fully aware (of all the protocols of an all-knowing and an all-powerful person) of the All-Powerful attributes of God. (Read why God allowed it to take place in the section earlier called, "Imagine experiencing the uprising War in Heaven," for the "good" that came forth as a result.)

Think about it for a moment; go deep to figure it all out.

How can anyone go up against an All-Knowing person? How can anyone in battle think they can take on, take out, or take down this person: THE ALL-POWERFUL; THE LORD, GOD, ALMIGHTY? Only ignorant FOOLS will try, who then deserves NO form of pardon, forever!

Someone once said to this writer: “Eternal suffering does not justly fit our threescore and ten sinful, inherited crimes.” So then, what is the punishment for going up against GOD: trying to take Him down or destroy Him?

This writer prayerfully asked God about the above statement made and “immediately” received the forcefully (somewhat with anger that was mysteriously felt) mental reply (using my very own thoughts): “What is the punishment for going up against God: trying to take Him down or destroy Him?” The implication was very clear; it pointed to all those who tried to take down or destroy, GOD!

After knowing this, do you think Lucifer and his angels had options or could have negotiated for a lesser punishment or outcome if they had humbly acknowledged their foolish acts and not continued to push forward with their evil agenda? How do you think the outcome would have played out? (Jer. 5:22, 16:10-13, Nahum 1:2) Intense pride and arrogance cause ALL to make foolish decisions. (“Pride goeth before destruction...” “A man’s pride shall bring him low...” “When pride cometh, then cometh shame...” Proverbs 16:18, 29:23, and 11:2)

3 They did not know that God was indestructibly All-Powerful!

They did not know that God was indestructibly All-Powerful. Sin brought/brings about many unwanted circumstances: doubts, mistakes, problems, foolish or unwise decisions and choices, etc. War would have never broken out in heaven had they known. Lucifer, and neither his wicked followers would never have tried or even entertained the thought of doing so, if they knew that everything they tried would be crushed. There would be no desire to pursue their agenda for that reason.

4 They did not know the true outcome of their uprising in Heaven.

If Lucifer and his warlords knew the outcome of their conspiracy, then the wise decision would have been not to try and pursue or destroy the impenetrable and indestructible GOD! Because God is invincibly All-Powerful, then no one would even dare go up against Him. They never knew what evil and sin would have created for them: Hell, the Lake of Fire, eternal damnation, eternal suffering, and punishment. Had they known these things, all of their actions would have been abandoned. But now, their eternal destiny had been dreadfully and irrevocably sealed. What is left for them to do is bring as many along with them as possible.

Our time journey is coming to an end; our eternal journey is about to begin!

- The Conclusion -

God created Good, and He created Evil (or the ability to disobey Him: Is. 45:7). Therefore, He prepared HIMSELF to become a sacrifice for us all. To be 100% fair and just with the freedom and the ability to choose between the two, this option had to be included in His creation. (This option was between Good and Evil, right or wrong, the right or the wrong way, our own way or God's way.) If a perfect balance was not present in His creation, then accusers (those who may possibly know things outside the "circle of attainable knowledge," so to speak, even though there is no such thing), would have had a valid and strong voice (argument) in the courtroom of His holy presence if it was possible for them to find out. God is absolutely faithful and just; even when mighty works are unknowingly hidden deep behind the impossible, unattainable, All-Knowing Person's reasoning circumstances of knowledge (or His creation).

When "time" comes to a final end and "eternity" races forward with an unending or a never-ending day (Zec. 14:6-7) of eternity itself, the reason "Evil" will not be included in the mix (or co-exist with Good) would be because (1) It had already displayed and proven its own destructive power; and (2) Its destructive actions have been paid for in full by the Ultimate Sacrificial Act: The God-sacrifice. Evil would no longer exist in the new world God will create: the new heaven and new earth (Rev. 21:1), where all sins (or all evil acts) will not enter there. It will no longer be remembered, no more forever; even mysteriously no longer be remembered by God Himself. (Is. 43:25, 65:17, Jer. 31:34) This explains how crying will no longer occur. If the memory of all (loved ones, and) evil acts that occurred are removed and remembered no more forever, then there would be no reason to cry (no more crying, nor evil acts) or nothing to cry for.

Now finally, Jesus said, "I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me." (John 14:6) If you confess Jesus is God; put your faith and trust in Him, and believe that He raised Himself from the dead, you shall be saved from the wrath to come: The Lake of Fire. (Romans 10:9-10)

How much easier can salvation get? If you do not believe that Jesus Christ is God, you will die in your sins. (John 8:24) God was/is the only one who qualified to pay our sinful (evil) debt, and therefore, we must believe and trust in Him alone for His pardon: His Pardon Agreement. (Read excerpts of it at the end of this document.)

Who else can rise from the dead? Eternal life came from God and because of an evil act (disobedience), death came into our world. He was the only one who could have conquered death (the foreign enemy), and, therefore, the only one who conquered it for all mankind. Therefore, you MUST believe that He, God, raised Himself from the dead. "That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved." (Rom. 10:9-10)

Yes! Jesus is God, and raised Himself from the dead! (John 10:17-18) If you believe this by trusting Him (His Word), and confessing it from your mouth (which would come from your heart), you will be saved. If you don't accept this, you will be cast into Hell, and afterward, the Lake of Fire.

If you want God in your life, repeat either prayer below. Say either one from your mouth and let it come from your heart (modify it if you wish without changing the message).

Keep in mind that God can hear you loud and clear, and He remembers your prayer(s) and will remember them when you stand before Him.

THE PRAYER I

God, I do not know how to talk to you. I have neglected for years to read your Word, to visit your place of worship, or even say a word or two in prayer to you. As a result, I do not know where to start so that I can have a relationship with you. LORD, forgive me for my foolish failures. LORD, please come into my life and save my sinful soul. I really desperately want a relationship with you and want it to blossom into something serious. LORD, please grant me this request for a serious relationship with you. Please, I beg you, LORD!

THE PRAYER II

LORD, I don't deserve to come before you with all of my wicked pleasures of this world. They are so sweet LORD! LORD, I developed a love and passion for the way I am presently living; enjoying all the worldly pleasures that life offers. But LORD, deep down inside of me, I want you! I want you, LORD! But the worldly pleasures have imprisoned me. LORD, you are a jealous God, and you refuse anyone who puts worldly pleasures and lust before you. LORD, I don't have the mental capacity, the mental strength, and the needed knowledge tailored toward fixing my problem; to help me break free from it. LORD, I really want you! LORD, I really need you! LORD, I really love you! Please help me, dear God, to reverse my lustful worldly desires by putting you first instead of putting them first so that I can request your presence in my life. Please, dear LORD, I beg you to help me to passionately want you! LORD, have mercy on me! Please, LORD, help me!

After praying and believing these prayers, then again, repeat the prayer below. Say it from your mouth (into the atmosphere) and let it come from your heart (modify it if you wish without changing the message). Remember that if you love someone or want that person, you will try desperately to get that person's attention and to learn and do whatever that person says and loves.

THE PRAYER III

LORD, I have asked you to come into my life and, without a doubt, believed that you did. LORD, I have this problem with absolutely no strength to conquer it. LORD, I need your strength and power for victory over this sin. LORD, if you do not provide the miracle I need, you very well know that I WILL fall flat on my face with this sin. LORD, please help me! I beg you, LORD, PLEASE HELP ME! LORD, HAVE MERCY ON ME! Please,

LORD, have mercy on my sinful soul!
I BEG YOU, LORD! PLEASE!

What happens when someone is born-again?

The Old Testament Ten Commandment Laws were fulfilled (repackaged and renamed) in the New Testament’s One Commandment Law, which says: “Ye MUST be BORN AGAIN!” (John 3:7) So then, why obedience to these laws is no longer required when the individual is born-again? The answer is that when a true, new-birth experience (born-again) occurs, several things happen. One is: “God Possession!” (John 14:16-17, 26; 1 Cor. 3:16, 6:19-20; 2 Tim 1:14) The person becomes GOD POSSESSED! As a result, the person began radiating the fruits of the Holy Spirit, which “...is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, temperance: against such there is no law.” (Galatians 5:22-23)

Like “demon possession,” where the evil spirit causes victims to uncontrollably do things against their will, the opposite is true with the Christian, where “God possession” causes the believer to automatically radiate all the fruits of God’s indwelling Holy Spirit and at the same time allow them (God possessed believers) their own free will.

A demon whose stronghold is lust, his victim will radiate an uncontrollable lustful behavior. If the demon’s stronghold is lying, his victim will become a compulsive liar. The same is true with theft, adultery, fornication, ¹homosexuality, murder, disobedience, etc. On the other hand, if the fruit of God’s Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, and temperance (Galatians 5:22-23), after God’s possession (after conversion or the new birth: born-again), the born-again believer will radiate these attributes of God’s Holy Spirit, which is why 2 Corinthians 5:17 said what it did. (“Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new.”) If you (or someone you know) do not display these qualities of God’s Spirit, then God is not living inside. There is/was no new birth: born-again. Examine yourself!

Ephesians 5:9 says: “For the fruit of the Spirit is in ALL goodness and righteousness and truth.” What does this verse mean? What do “in all goodness,” “in all righteousness,” and “in all truth,” mean? Certainly, it DID NOT say, nor did it mean, “in all things that are.” It said, in all goodness, righteousness, and truth. This simply meant that because the fruit of the Spirit is EVERYTHING, or ALL (no more and no less) that is good, ALL that is righteous, and ALL that is truth, there is really no need for anything else. Once you internally have the fruit of the Spirit, you have ALL the GOODNESS, ALL the RIGHTEOUSNESS, AND ALL the TRUTH you will ever need. Everything inclusive! Everything you need! No need for anything else! No further need for any external laws. All that is needed (for salvation) is now built-in. (Jeremiah 31:31-34; Hebrews 8:7-13)

¹Homosexuality (also, other perverted sexual sins too gross to mention here), a very unclean kind of sin, was designed by Lucifer as one of the components used to help destroy God’s creation. God commanded humanity to “Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth...” (Gen. 1:28) Two men cannot achieve this (to create a new life or a new birth), and neither can two women. They would have to adopt; but adopt from where if everyone embraces this unnatural, evil, and sinful lifestyle? Eventually, there will no longer be any human births or new life; hence, wiping out humanity. This was why God destroyed this demonically contagious sin early in Scripture. Demons very quietly, subtly, and less forcefully enter or possess a female body through diverse human admissions, learn her ways, and then walk into a male body and very wickedly force female tendencies upon him. The reverse is true with the male to female. This is an extreme stronghold, enslavement kind of sin that requires serious prayers and fasting from victims seeking deliverance.

The Ultimate Sacrificial

and the surprisingly residing judge called,

HELL!

"...and death and hell delivered up the dead which were in them: and they were judged every man according to their works." (Revelation 20:13)

"...That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying, I will open my mouth in parables; I will utter things which have been kept secret from the foundation of the world." (Matthew 13:35) "Even the mystery which hath been hid from ages and from generations, but now is made manifest to his saints..." (Colossians 1:26)

Jeffery appeared before God, screaming uncontrollably with his mouth wide open; he had a facial look of choking and a frightening demeanor. He was screaming out loud people's names (as though they could hear him), who warned him of hellfire and continuously and painfully grasping to repeat the next loud burst of scream that was obviously caused by flames felt in hell.

Suddenly, he stopped, but with an appearance of breathing profusely, he began examining carefully his current surroundings. It has ended, he thought, and began crying and begging not to send him back from whence he came.

God asked His bookkeeper if his name was written in the Book of Life. The recording angel answered, "No, Lord! I cannot find his name here." As both of them were communicating (Revelation 20:12-15), Jeffery quickly recognized where he was, what was happening, and what was about to happen to him. He stared in horror at the black inferno world of liquid fire entrance called the Lake of Fire (a purely black liquid fiery world with thick darkness) to God's upper left with a terror-stricken expression on his face.

He suddenly remembered this scene when he was a part of the rebels (angels) who wanted their own way, to dethrone God and destroy Him in heaven. (Psalm 2:1-3, Job 21:14-15, 22:17, Revelation 12:7-9, John 8:34-47) It all suddenly played back to him as he stood there stunned with his memory acknowledging the incident. (On earth he had no access to any prior knowledge: he was conceived with zero wisdom, knowledge, and understanding.) After which, he burst out with a loud voice of regret, saying, "Oh God!" and shaking violently.

Then he screamed out: "Have mercy LORD! Have mercy on my wretched soul!" God then said to him: "I died for you. I died to save you. I died a very painful death for you. You wanted nothing to do with Me. Even though you were not physically present, if you were, you would have shouted along with the chief priests, scribes, and Pharisees, ‘Crucify Him!’ You hated Me without a cause (with the old hatred). Besides this, it is now only through fear you are tearfully regretful, but remove the fear, and you will eventually curse Me to My face.” (Ps. 36:1-4, Pr. 1:23-31)

“Remove the fear,” meaning, starting afresh, returning to zero wisdom, knowledge, and understanding and removing all visible signs of His glory and His consistent appearing presence, along with all surrounding things that can “visibly” prove He exists. All that goes beyond natural laws, like those of Moses and Israel’s freedom journey experiences. This is of cause with the exception of the heavens, which declare His handiwork (Ps. 19:1), His glory, and creative design. This is why to know Him is to fear Him, and to fear Him is to know Him. Thus, the fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom. (Pr. 1:7; also, Job 28:28) So then, those who truly fear Him will know Him and be saved. (Luke 23:40-43) Those who don’t and remain in their fearless, “atheistic-freedom-of-choice” state of mind will be cast into the Lake of Fire. All “no-fear-of-God” views are atheistic in nature. (For example, the statements: “We all will die one day, but who cares what happens after this?” “I am certain many people I know who went before me, I will go where they went; especially my loved ones; I want to be with them.” “I am not afraid of death because everyone MUST walk this lonely and unknown pathway.” “I consider myself a good person, and as a result, I believe God will allow me into heaven.”)

Ex. 20:20, 23:27; Deut. 4:10; Job 28:28; Ps. 53:1, 111:10, 2:1-6; Prov. 1:7, 29, 14:27; Is. 8:13; Jer. 32:40; Luke 23:40-43; Acts 9:31; 2 Cor. 7:1; Phil. 2:12-13; Heb. 4:1, 12:28; Rev. 11:18 and 19:5.

“Literally, the men who were responsible for sending Me to the cross could not kill Me. No human(s) could have killed Me (John 10:17-18). It was only when I allowed (commend, yield, or gave up) My Spirit to leave My body was when My body died (Luke 23:46). Otherwise, I could not die because of the rule in Ezekiel 18:4 and Romans 6:23.”

(Like Job, permission was granted to Satan to do whatsoever he wished to Jesus. Ironically, though, Satan chose what had already been planned before the foundation of the world: The Ultimate Sacrificial Act.)

The Behind-the-Scene Crucifixion Plot

These thoughts are not found in scripture but mysteriously came to mind as this section was being written.

There were several critical issues that were grave concerns to Lucifer and his warlords, which began wiping out their strongholds among the people. (Micah 5:11-13)

They were: (1) Jesus’ unprecedented strategic approach (low, meek, and humble) to becoming king appeared to be working. (2) All miracles that helped to achieve His goals (restoring sight to the blind, restoring hearing to the deaf, restoring lost limbs and broken bones, curing all forms of leprosy, diseases, and sickness, etc.) were getting Him closer and closer to His mission assignment. (3) Rumors of the dead coming back to life (a powerful miracle to prove who He was and what He could do for mankind) erupted and were seriously spreading among the people. (4) Satan’s demonic host was being cast out in droves and, therefore, wiping out strategic plans, positions of control, deception, and human destruction. (5) Jesus’ transfer of miraculous powers to humans (Matthew 10:1, Luke 10:19) so that they too, began performing miracles and casting out devils. (6) Satan’s wicked judicial and religious systems were all falling apart, and their corrupt practices were being exposed; even spreading to other foreign nations. (7) People began leaving false teachings and embracing Jesus’ message. Many began believing in Him.

(Certainly, Satan did not want a greater repeat of what happened with Solomon in 1 Kings 4:21, 2 Chronicles 9:23 and verse 26. It would be a fatal blow to his planned program, especially if Jesus reigned as king over all the earth. If it was allowed to occur or be established, then it would inevitably last or remain forever.)

As Lucifer and his warlords carefully read through the Old Testament scripture (remember that the New Testament scripture was not yet written), plotting how to destroy Jesus, Beelzebub threw a “monkey wrench” (another twist or scenario, so to speak) into the whole deliberation (the mixing bowl of confusion) as to how events taken place would all play out. He predicted that if Jesus was left alive (or alone), He might marry a woman and have righteous or perfect children with her. He said, “What do you think would happen if He got married to a woman?” The entire meeting went silent, with all eyes focused intently on Beelzebub, listening carefully and in deep thought. Beelzebub continued, “If it could happen with God (the Father) and Mary, it certainly could happen with Jesus and a woman. Remember, the righteous bloodline flows through the man, not the woman.”

Mary, Jesus’ mother, was examined closely, and it was concluded that perfect children and offspring were possible through the bloodline of Jesus (this was because Jesus was born through Mary, His earthly, human mother. He was conceived perfect and without sin). If God (the Father) did it through Mary and produced a perfect human (His Son, Jesus), then certainly, Jesus can legally do the same through a wife (one woman) whom He may marry. The bloodline comes through the man and not the woman. Therefore, a perfect bloodline will come from Jesus, and not the woman whom He marries.

Beelzebub painted a distasteful picture for the entire group of evil warlords. He said, “What will happen if Jesus marries a woman, produces children (boys and girls), and they grow up and marry among themselves (or their own kind, as Adam’s children did), and their children also grow up and marry and have children, and this cycle continues? If they maintain their perfect and sinless lifestyles, spreading them as they continue to multiply, what would happen over a period of 200 to 300 years if they were all fruitful and increased abundantly and the earth became filled with them?” This, they thought, explains what Jeremiah 31:8-9 meant (“...the woman with child...”), especially Ezekiel 46:16-18 and Malachi 3:18.

He challenged all attendees to read Ezekiel’s Chapter 40 through to Chapter 48, along with Daniel 9:25-26 (especially the statement, “...the people of the Prince...”) again for strong evidence of this happening. “Sinful mankind may eventually fail God and be destroyed over time, and these perfect humans would live forever because they would be sinless and repopulate the entire earth. We then would be doomed because all of them would give the entire earth to Jesus (representing God) to carry out His original ‘Garden of Eden’ plans (Ezekiel 36:24-35). This truly explains how He will build His army to conquer as King without violence.”

Satan was “blown away” by the theory. It was certainly possible (as he pondered it to himself), and then he cursed God. This will not be allowed to happen, he thought. He will attack Jesus at all costs and make Him undesirable to any woman, disturbing any reproduction possibilities when he is finished with Him.

Satan began strategizing a challenge to throw at God, all being part of the process of destroying Jesus and disrupting His mission, according to Old Testament scripture, of becoming King. This was similar to what he had tried doing when Job’s “upright” and “perfect” lifestyle was brought up by God. (Job 1:8) He took away Job’s possessions, but it did not work. He then inflicted an uncomfortable disease that broke out sores all over Job’s body, but he failed the challenge again because he believed it was not accompanied with unbearable pain and suffering. No human can endure unbearable pain and suffering; none! Satan thought.

Satan later came before God’s presence and stood out, pointing his finger in a direction where Jesus may have been at the time, then threw out his challenge (so to speak), regarding Jesus. He said: No Man! No...Man! None could endure incredibly intense, unbearable pain and suffering! If this was inflicted on your Son, Jesus, He “WILL”

“Curse” you to your face and “Disobey” your every will and command. Satan also mumbled about the unfair selection of Peter’s role (Luke 22:31) because Jesus ratified him in Matthew 16:17-19.

God (The Father), paused for a while (as though He was in deep thought) and then accepted the challenge by instructing Satan (permitting him) to proceed. Afterward, Satan quickly left in haste. (Satan did not know the words of Elihu in Job 33:21-22 predicted or prophesied what he was to do with Jesus: “His flesh is consumed away, that it cannot be seen; and his bones that were not seen stick out...” Thus, following a similar occasion mentioned in Job 1:6-12 and 2:1-6.)

As soon as Satan left God’s presence, Jesus said what He did in John 12:31 that caused him (Lucifer) to go into a frenzy and move swiftly forward with his plans, even though they were all already on high alert. (This was because of what Jesus said earlier in Matthew 4:17, 10:7, 16:28, and Mark 9:1. He thought the Kingdom of God was about to appear.) Lucifer had to work fast because of this. No more meetings, deliberations, and strategizing, and no more procrastination; just action! He had to make his move quickly, and his thoughts were “NOW!” before God changed His mind. He remembered the prophecies that were all beginning to unfold, creating major problems for him and his pending challenge. This challenge was about to begin.

Satan himself did not clearly understand Jesus’ statement in Mark 9:31. Along with the disciples, he too, was confused when Jesus mentioned that He was to be killed and raised from the dead. He was thinking that it may have been some kind of parable. This was because he knew Ezekiel 18:4 (“...the soul that sinneth, it shall die.”) and that Jesus was sinless; therefore, He could not die because He was free from sin. Satan was thinking that He had to have been referring to something else. According to him, it was an allegorical, figurative, or symbolic statement because all scripture (the New Testament was not yet written) recorded Him coming as a conquering king; conquering everything around Him. So then, He could not die. (Matt. 16:21-23, Mark 8:31-33)

Satan confirmed this during the beating, when Jesus should have been literally dead long before the beating ended. This was because of His appearance and how torn-up His body looked afterward.

For more information, read the document called, “What would have happened if Jesus Christ didn’t die?” found at www.apublicviewing.com.

God continued speaking: “So, I had to bear it all. (Job 16:10-16, 19:6-11) My human body should have been dead long before the beating ended. I begged them to stop. I begged and begged and begged and begged and begged... I pleaded and pleaded and pleaded and pleaded... I hollered out loud, violently pulling hard on the ropes tied to My wrists, but they just kept beating and beating and beating... I screamed and screamed for mercy, but no relief from My executioners. I was ripped up like grater blades; blood was all over the place.

Just about every inch of My body was ripped up (Job 33:21), including My eyelids, which were ripped up and both bleeding. Had it not been for the use of My Spiritual eyes, I could not have seen My surroundings. This resulted from the blood that was continuously pouring from and over them, down My face because both of My hands were tied. I threw up lots of blood as I screamed and as vital organs were punctured.”

A lamb to the slaughter; so he openeth not his mouth

Isaiah 53:7 said: He came (humbly) as “a lamb to the slaughter...so he openeth not his mouth” meaning, He did not reveal to them from His own mouth, clearly, plainly, and publicly, that He “was and is God!”

Some believe this means that during His suffering, He was silent, not making a sound. (This is not a behavior of a fully, 100% human.)

However, since He actually spoke at times (before the religious leaders, to Pilate, to the people who followed Him to Calvary, and to persons after He was nailed to the cross), the statement: “he openeth not his mouth” had to have meant that He did not clearly, plainly, and publicly revealed Himself to them. Also, He obviously opened His mouth to scream, and cried out loud, painfully, and grievously wept as the Roman soldiers viciously administered intense beating.

The people had to act on their own free will without God’s interference. He stepped back, so to speak. He openeth not His mouth and allowed the consequences of humanity’s sin to take its own course; to give its own suffering and death sentence that brought about an acceptable payment for our sins. God allowed sin to do her own bidding before He stepped in and did His: He came to die first, to shed His blood for the remission of sins, to pay our sin debt. Afterward, He came to conquer death by dying and rising from the dead.

For more information, read the document called: “Why then did Jesus not clearly, plainly, and publicly say he was GOD?” found at: www.apublicviewing.com. [P3-P9]

...his visage [face] was so marred [damaged] more than any man, and his form [body shape] more than the sons of men...the kings [leaders, scholars, preachers, teachers, etc.] shall shut their mouths at him:

for that which had not been told them shall they see; and that which they had not heard shall they consider.

(Isaiah 52:14-15 – Dictionary emphasis added)

God began...weeping!? He burst into tears from the memories of the intense pain felt that day. (Isaiah 16:9 along with verse 13, Jeremiah 9:1-3, 14:17, and John 11:35) Everyone present, choked with grief and turned their faces either to the right, left, down, or simply turned around to avoid this very sorrowful moment when they saw the Creator of the universe burst out into tears. Everyone present began crying also.

Jeffery was stunned when God started weeping; he never thought that could happen. He did not truly understand how seriously and catastrophically intense the pain and suffering was. On earth, he had never given it any thought. But God tearfully continued: “The pain; Oh! the pain was intense. I screamed, and I begged them to stop, but they didn’t because they were actually possessed by demons who were really the ones administering and carrying out the barbaric punishment. The executioners were not themselves, but the demons that possessed their bodies took full control of them and wanted to drive Me insane.”

⁹He teareth me in his wrath, who hateth me: he gnasheth upon me with his teeth; mine enemy sharpeneth his eyes upon me. ¹⁰They have gaped upon me with their mouth; they have smitten me upon the cheek reproachfully; they have gathered themselves together against me. ¹¹God hath delivered me to the ungodly, and turned me over into the hands of the wicked. ¹²I was at ease, but he hath broken me asunder: he hath also taken me by my neck, and shaken me to pieces, and set me up for his mark. ¹³His archers compass me round about, he cleaveth my reins asunder, and doth not spare; he poureth out my gail upon the ground. ¹⁴He breaketh me with breach upon breach, he runneth upon me like a giant. ¹⁵I have sewed sackcloth upon my skin, and defiled my horn in the dust. ¹⁶My face is foul with weeping, and on my eyelids is the shadow of death. (Job 16:9-16) ⁶Know now that God hath overthrown me, and hath compassed me with his net. ⁷Behold, I cry out of wrong, but I am not heard: I cry aloud, but there is no judgment. ⁸He hath fenced up my way that I cannot pass, and he hath set darkness in my paths. ⁹He hath stripped me of my glory, and taken the crown from my head. ¹⁰He hath destroyed me on every side, and I am gone: and mine hope hath he removed like a tree. ¹¹He hath also kindled his wrath against me, and he counteth me unto him as one of his enemies. (Job 19:6-11) My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me? why art thou so far from helping me, and from the words of my roaring? (Psalm 22:1)

Job's complaints (punishment of a righteous person) toward God (a type of Christ's agony relating to His own suffering) regarding "the thing that/which is right." (Job 42:7-8) Reflections of Jesus' suffering remarks are seen by the kindling wrath of God against Job's three friends because they had not spoken things (Jesus' suffering experience) that were right as Job did. Also, above is King David's own personal experience which is a reflection of the suffering of Christ. (Mat. 27:46, Mark 15:34)

"Demons satisfyingly laughed out loud; they waited long for this moment. Somehow finally, in their minds, it came: the opportunity to beat up and destroy the Holy One of God: beat up and destroy GOD! (Mark 1:23-24). To them, it was a pleasure to see and witness the Creator of the universe screaming, crying, and hollering out in pain. Multitudes of unclean spirits left their assignments just to witness and see this unbelievable event. They could not believe their lashes were making Me cry like a helpless child. They brought Me down low, to the level of a mange dog; to a piece of moldy and unwanted bread.

Before the beating started, as I approached the garden along with My disciples, the Father revealed to Me the details of the suffering I would have to endure and the death I would die to pay for the world's sin debt. Also, once some elements of perfection were set aside (these were no pain and suffering, no mistakes, no accidents, no death, ongoing protection, etc.) and the behind-the-scene, redemption plan began, it cannot be stopped or it fails." (Psalm 91:11-12 and Matthew 4:6)

Certainly, the elements (or rules) of perfection for a sinless person did not allow any bones to be broken. This was not an "element of perfection" component included in the sacrifice that was set aside. Additionally, it was not that Lucifer and his warlords avoided trying to break his bones with all the force inflicted; His bones just would not break. They could not be broken; they only came out of joint. (Ex. 12:46, Nu. 9:12, Psalm 34:20, John 19:36) However, the impacts from the beating were far beyond the capacity to maintain unbroken bones, which was why they just came out of joint. (Ps. 22:14) Naturally, all His bones should have been broken during the course of the intense beating.

On another note, when the scripture said that they will "put him to death" (Luke 18:33), meaning that they will "condemn Him to death" by executing the death sentence, it was only when Jesus gave up the ghost was when He died and not before and not by man.

For the question of why Jesus (God in human flesh) asked, "whether this cup can be taken away," read the document called, "Evidence of Jesus (God) being conceived human with zero wisdom, knowledge, and understanding," found at: www.apublicviewing.com.

"Even though I knew I was to die and rise again on the third day, I struggled, staggered, and stared in a daze over the detailed information. I was in very deep and difficult thoughts. I instructed Peter, James, and John to wait for Me at our favorite spot, and I continued for a short distance so that they would not hear the communication with My Father; so as not to disappoint them at this time, in any way on what was said and about to happen. The others were a short distance away from us. However, Peter, James, and John were closer, in case I needed their immediate support.

I knew what these unclean spirits would do to Me, which was why, being in agony, I prayed more earnestly until my 'sweat was as it were great drops of blood falling down to the ground.' (Luke 22:44) I asked My Father whether this cup could be taken away or some other way of paying this sin debt, but He said to Me, this was the only way.

I then obediently said as I did earlier, ‘...Lo, I come (in the volume of the book it is written of me,) to do thy will, O God... Sacrifice and offering and burnt offerings and offering for sin thou wouldest not, neither hadst pleasure therein; which are offered by the law...Lo, I come to do thy will, O God...’ (Psalm 40:6-8, Hebrews 10:7-9) After saying this and committing Myself to My Father’s will, I then knew I was going to face the biggest challenge of My human life and be at the mercy of their hands. The only thing that kept Me from reacting otherwise was My intense love for you and My Father. If I had responded with the Power at my will, I would have lost all of mankind; all of My children forever.”

The First scourging!

A small army of soldiers quickly took Jesus away to Pontius Pilate who later commanded that they take Him to the torture chamber to be scourged and brought back to try and appease the religious leaders. In Pilate’s mind, a little threatening and persuasion after a serious beating usually resolves the problem and prevents any further disruption among the people. This Pilate thought to himself, not knowing what barbaric beating was about to take place later.

So, they beat Jesus with many stripes. Whip marks were all over His body. They platted a crown of thorns and placed it on His head (not knowing it symbolized Exodus 28:36-38). The soldiers untied His hands and placed a scarlet robe on Him. When it got messy, with blood stains and whip marks, they replaced it with a purple robe. This robe was taken off and replaced with His own clothes when He was led to be crucified. (The purple robe hid most of the beating scars.)

They mocked Him, spat on Him, and hit Him on His head with a reed. He gave His back to the smiters, and His cheeks to them that plucked off His hair: He hid not His face from shame and spitting. (Isaiah 50:6) Several of them punched Him in His face, chest, stomach, and groin area. He fell to the ground in pain from each of these physical impacts. They stood there and laughed at Him, and then dragged Him again before Pilate. Pilate tried to convince the leaders of the people that he was going to release Him, and that the scourging was sufficient. However, he was unsuccessful. Nevertheless, he delivered Him to them to be crucified.

After the “first scourging,” Pilate gave Jesus over to the chief priests and elders of the people. Thereafter, following instructions from one of them, the soldiers moved with haste and took Him to a special section of the jailhouse that was not very far away from Pilate’s judgment hall.

WHAT?

A Second wave of beating?

(Ex. 17:6, Numbers 20:11, 1 Cor. 10:1-4)

When did this second wave of beating occur?

It is not clearly found in Scripture.

Moses’ striking of the rock twice caused Jesus (God) a second wave of beating.

What? A second wave of beating? When did this second scourging occur? It is not clearly found in Scripture! So, when did Jesus’ facial and physical form that was agonizingly, severely, and unrecognizably damaged, according to Isaiah 52:14, occur? It had to have happened before the cross. It could not have happened before His reappearance before Pilate after the first scourging. This was because Pilate would have had great pity on Him. It definitely would have resulted in Him not going to the cross. Due to how Pilate was fighting to save Him from crucifixion and death, he would have been grief-stricken if he had seen His bloodied, damaged face, and body. He would have then boldly used his governor's prevailing, authoritative, privileged position and discharged (free) Him as a result.

Pilate, no doubt, questioned within himself by saying, 'Why crucify Him? Why not just kill Him? It is so much easier and quicker! Why cause Him to suffer before killing Him? What evil hath he done?' (Luke 23:22) For this, he knew "that the chief priests had delivered him for envy." (Mark 15:10) But, he was unaware of the dark side of this plot and the serious suffering that had to be administered to pay for the sins of the world.

Crucifixion is usually applied to notorious criminals to get them to talk or to punish them for the serious crime committed. But to administer crucifixion on someone with no criminal record or for something that cannot be proven was wicked. The two criminals who were convicted to be executed by crucifixion were notorious and well-known thieves. There was no criminal record or knowledge of any wrongdoing against Jesus.

Further proof of what Pilate would have done was that because of his strong willingness to release Jesus in Luke 23:1-24, he would have then ignored the threats from the religious leaders and signed a release bill to let Him go. He would have boldly ruled: It's enough! Enough is enough! "...What I have written I have written." (John 19:22) The governor would have shut down their malicious, crucifixion intentions if he had seen Jesus' damaged, bloodied, miraculously alive, torn-up, and ripped-up face and body appearance according to Isaiah 52:14. It would have been heartbreakingly too much for him (Pilate) or any of his colleagues (including his dear wife) to bear. He would have freed Him.

Let us now examine some of the components involved, to show Jesus' body after the intense suffering from being beaten (scourged). First of all, Isaiah 52:14, 53:2 said, "...his visage was so marred more than any man, and his form more than the sons of men...he hath no form nor comeliness; and when we shall see him, there is no beauty that we should desire him." (This simply meant that no other human could ever be living with such a damaged and torn-up face and body like that of Jesus in all eternity. It was never seen before and will never be seen again with anyone else, forever.)

At Calvary, there were only nails driven in His hands, feet and a spear into His side, which did not disfigure His face or the rest of His body. As a result, the intense beating to seriously deface and deform Him had to have occurred sometime just after His arrest and before He went to the cross.

The Bible vaguely used the word "scourged" in Matt. 20:19, 27:26, Mark 10:34, 15:15, Luke 18:33, and John 19:1, but very modestly and intentionally did not provide any details of what actually took place. If Jesus was so heavily disfigured, then the soldiers had to have sickeningly beaten him mercilessly. Visage refers to His facial appearance, countenance, or proportion of facial features. His form refers to the rest of His human body (His natural body shape and looks). To be marred means to injure, damage, disfigure, etc. Both face and body were heavily marred more than any human: past, present, and future. Isaiah was very clear on the status of his appearance after the slaughter (scourging). We can, therefore, comprehend this by looking at several verses written after His resurrection later in the following section called, "Jesus was unrecognizable."

For more information on Jesus' beating episode, read below. Also, read the documents called: "What's wrong with this picture?" and "The judgment of Judas Iscariot." Both are found at: www.apublicviewing.com.

"As the second scourging began, blood started spouting from My veins. All My internal body functions could not stop or be disabled because man could not kill Me. I could not die from any injuries inflicted by man. Therefore, all internal organs continue to work perfectly, including all the pain that was felt. There was no numbness anywhere on Me, and so I bore the full brunt of all the pain and suffering. Even when My blood was pouring out of My veins, My body kept producing more and more; as quickly as it was pouring out, it was being produced.

My body tried to keep up with reproducing blood to meet the demands of the loss of blood. Because I could not die at the hands of man, My body had to reproduce blood as fast as it was losing it. Also, the blood clot mechanism tried to mend and stop the bleeding, but the ripping and tearing from the whip spikes created many additional wounds; even ripping into my flesh. The ripping and tearing also extended below my flesh, to the muscle tissues that ripped and tore open from the beating.

My body was overworking its capacity, but it had to stay in line with the rule of Romans 6:23. It could not die because it was free from sin. My blood was pouring out like water. Even though I created the human body with ten to twelve pints of blood, I bled gallons and gallons upon gallons, and on and on of blood, miraculously from My body because I could not die and needed blood to keep My body of flesh alive.

Because My bones were visible, there was lots and lots of bleeding. (Psalms 22:17) The executioners were walking in three inches of blood as they continued to beat Me. I screamed and screamed, and I screamed from the unbearable pain that was felt.”

Walking In A Three Inch Deep Pool Of Blood? The required amount of blood

The life of the flesh is in the blood. “For the life of the flesh is in the blood...For it is the life of all flesh; the blood of it is for the life thereof...” (Leviticus 17:11, 14) Our body of flesh is alive because of the blood that is within. If there is no blood or it pours out of the body, the body of flesh dies. The body cannot remain alive without blood.

The heart pumps blood to all areas of the body. It does this because the blood carries with it all the oxygen and food necessary to sustain the life of every cell and tissue. It feeds them. When an artery or vein is clogged, or the blood stops flowing to any part of the body (like when the heart stops pumping blood: a heart attack), the entire cell or tissue in that area (or the entire body) quickly dies. Thus, to maintain the life of all body tissues and cells, blood MUST continue to freely flow.

What is the difference in the meaning of the words pouring out, bleeding, and dripping? Is there a difference? Psalm 22:14 described how David felt, but prophetically, what was actually happening to Jesus during the scourging. It said, “I am poured out like water...” In other words, Jesus’ blood was pouring out like water. No other liquid in the human body (except for urine) can do this naturally. (Urination is not mentioned in Scripture during a sacrificial offering. Blood is always mentioned and is poured out of the sacrifice like water.) Compare, the “pouring out like water” statement to the blood sacrifice mentioned in Deuteronomy 12:16, 24, 15:23. If Jesus’ blood poured out like water, then He was bleeding lots and lots of blood.

According to Psalm 22:17 and Job 33:21, His BONES (and not bone) were visible from the beating; therefore, the blood had to have been pouring out like a faucet. If our bones are visible, how much bleeding do you think we will be doing if there is no assistance to try and stop it?

Now, in the days leading up to and following the Passover, the sacrificial laws were somewhat similar to those days leading up to and following the Day of Atonement. This was the day the High Priest went into the Holy of Holies once per year to make atonement for the sins of all the people. However, each year, from the first day of the seventh month to the twenty-second day, there were a total of 71 bullocks, 18 rams, 170 lambs, and 32 goats sacrificed to the LORD. Their blood was poured out underneath (or at the bottom of) the altar; all of it besides, that which included the blood of regular daily sacrifices done, as instructed by Moses (Numbers chapters 28 and 29; also, Lev. 4:7, 18). This amounts to gallons upon gallons of blood that came from all of the animals combined.

All of Jesus’ sheared blood, spouting from His veins, was this amount and more: The required amount of blood from all of the animals combined for the forgiveness of all sins mentioned in the Law of Moses, Jesus' blood lost from all of the bleeding, fulfilled this blood amount requirement. (Even though the human body has ten to twelve pints of blood, He bled lots and lots of blood because He could not die and needed blood to keep His body alive. Thus, His body had to have been miraculously reproducing it as fast as He was losing it.) The blood was important because the life of all flesh was in it. (Leviticus 17:11, 14) "And almost all things are by the law purged with blood; and without shedding of blood is no remission." (Hebrews 9:22) The elements that brought about forgiveness of sins were not flesh, nor killing innocent animals. It was the blood (1 John 1:7) and the amount that was poured out from the sacrifice or combined animal sacrifices mentioned above. (Yes! Killing an innocent animal or person was also necessary, but the primary focus here is blood.) If only blood was required (not the amount of it), then one animal would have been sufficient. According to Scripture, lots of blood was required for the remission (or the forgiveness) of ALL sins.

If the argument: A little bit of blood was sufficient because of who Jesus was (the Holy One of God), then this argument must also be applied (stand or hold-up) to His suffering. His death would have been sufficient and not suffering by scourging and crucifixion. Nevertheless, because His face and body were heavily disfigured, blood poured out of them like water, and His bones were visible and out of joint, the little bit of blood theory cannot stand, but falls apart.

"Demons were working hard on breaking Me down (they also wanted Me to declare who Lucifer was, which was untrue: Matthew 4:8-10). They had to break my will and focus all their energy on doing just that. Even Lucifer (after a brief hesitation) walked into one of the executioners' body and took the most brutal whip available then started his beating. (This whip was like several barbed wire cables attached together with many razor-sharp metal spikes that tore into my flesh and muscle tissues. This whip was only used on victims who were not supposed to leave the premises alive.)

He used all the energy he could have mustered up and took his best shot to break Me down. He whipped Me mightily and mercilessly with all the strength and energy he could have utilized using his victim's body, but he was unable to break my will. His whip "sawed!" and "chiseled!" its way into My body; there were many very large and deep opened wounds seen all over it; in them, My bones were visible. (Psalm 22:1-31)

His demonic warlords also entered the bodies of other soldiers present and took their best shot. From all of the beating, My will was not broken. My love for humanity and My Father's wishes were more intense. The punishment and the intensity of the pain were unbearable and unimaginable."

A Public Viewing of Jesus' Damaged Body from the Beating Just Before Crucifixion?

This moment in time scene was frozen (in the past, for the future) to an exhibition presentation so that we all can walk into the torture chamber room and get a close-up glimpse of what Jesus Christ looked like during His intense beating. However, you must be warned; discretion is advised. Because of the intense beating (ripping and tearing of flesh over His entire body), Jesus is completely naked.

A sign at the entrance of the exhibition reminded viewers of what Jesus said at John 10:17-18: Jesus could not die at the hands of man. It was only when He allowed (commend or gave up) His Spirit to leave His body was when His body died; otherwise, man could not kill Him by any injuries inflicted. (Luke 23:46)

Therefore, He had to remain alive in this torture chamber and endure the slaughter that was in progress so that the amount of punishment and blood loss, along with the suffering of crucifixion, was sufficient and accepted to pay off the world's sin debt.

As a result, His body functions unbelievably could not stop or be disabled. All internal organs continue to work perfectly, including all the pain that was felt. There was no numbness anywhere on Him, and so He bore the full brunt of all the pain and suffering. His body kept miraculously producing blood as fast as it was losing it. This was because His body needed this blood to keep itself alive. (Leviticus 17:11, 14) When the blood was pouring out of His veins like water, it kept miraculously producing more and more, as quickly as it was pouring out. (Psalm 22:14, 17, Deut. 12:16, 24) Since His bones were visible, there were lots and lots of bleeding. His body was overworking its capacity, but it had to stay in line with the rules of Ezekiel 18:4 and Romans 6:23. It could not die because it was free from sin.

Now, as we enter the exhibition to view the body, the first thing that greets us is the strong odor of raw flesh and blood.

Walking around this painfully heartbreaking exhibit of Jesus, we recognized that it would have been impossible for a mere man to endure such suffering and agony. To be alive and endure this, he would have had to be more than a mortal man. He would have had to be God! Only God could have endured this catastrophically intense horror and terror scene. Only He (His love) could have borne this unbearable assignment. Now, we fully comprehend why Jesus was in such great agony and requested from His Father whether this unbearable assignment could be altered. ("...his visage was so marred more than any man, and his form more than the sons of men..." [Isaiah 52:14; also, Isaiah 53:1-12]) According to the dictionary definition, 'visage,' means face, and 'marred' means damaged.

To illustrate and somewhat properly describe what we are all looking at (Jesus' bleeding and bloody scene), is to visualize thick, chunky human blood that is poured over this body and covering it. For a full imagery to completely comprehend the scene, is to be present. Words cannot truly describe this horrific exhibit. Blood continued to pour to the ground, spreading around and creating a small, three-inches-deep pool covering the feet of all those who stood nearby, according to a posted note: '...For this exhibit, the blood is contained and only surrounds Jesus' body.'

When the barbwire whip tore and ripped through His body, bits and pieces of flesh, muscle, and fatty tissue mingled together and hung out of the wound. For a few seconds (as stated on the sign nearby), there were yellow, orange, and white colors along with visible bones seen in the wound. (Psalm 22:17) Then, a few seconds later, everything was covered with blood from the bleeding. The metal spikes repeatedly scrapped on the bones many times as they struck the same spot again and again. This was unbearably and brutally painful to Jesus.

As we look closely, His hands were tied approximately forty-eight inches apart above His head, high enough for Him to stand flat on both feet. His feet were tied about eighteen inches apart to avoid bringing them together. They were moveable but only in an outer direction. His head was tilted forward as though He was staring at the ground below Him. However, in this exhibition, Jesus' entire body hangs from the two ropes tied around both wrists that support His weight. It is obvious from the painful scene that he had no energy to stand on either foot. Therefore, His knees and entire midsection were slightly bent forward.

His entire head and body were covered with thick, chunky blood (blood mingled with small bits of flesh, muscle, and fatty tissues) that was continuously pouring from all areas of his frame. The blood just continued to pour out of the deep wounds created from the beating. His face was unrecognizable because of the blood that was pouring down and dripping from His chin in a slimy-looking way. It was mixed with lots of saliva from crying.

No skin surface area was spared. All was covered with blood. (Elihu, prophesied this in Job 33:21: "...His flesh is consumed away, that it cannot be seen; and his bones that were not seen stick out.” [Read Job 33:18-22 and Romans 4:7.] We now fully comprehend His righteous blood, which covered or clothed our body of sins.)

It was obvious that He took a serious facial beating. Both ears seem to be missing because there was no form or shape of ears visible on the bloody surface on both sides of His head. The eyes were shut tight to prevent blood from getting into them. The bloody ripping and tearing seen across the eyelids are so bad that it appears as though the eyeballs behind the skin may both be seriously damaged. His nose area appears to be split in half, as seen from the bloody form and shape on the surface. Half of it was missing, yet the nose bone shape seems to be intact. Part of the skin on the left side of His face looked as though it was flayed (Lev. 1:6, 2 Chro. 29:34), it hanged open, down His face. The shape of His skull bone was visible behind the blood.

The mouth was very notably wider than normal, because it stretched all the way to the back of His jaws on the right side of His face. His front and right-side teeth were all visible because the lip area was ripped up. The exhibition notes on the wall stated how this mouth-ripping scene happened:

Jesus made loud outbursts each time pain from the whip was felt. Lucifer (using his victim’s voice because he had possessed one of the executioners’ body) shouted out loud and said, “Shut...Up!” When he said “SHUT,” he drew back the whip behind him and with all his might swung it forward for a facial strike. The whip struck Jesus’ head, wrapping itself around the back of the head with all the sharp spikes digging their way into the bloody flesh area. The end part of the whip pierced and stationed itself into and around the end of the right side of Jesus’ mouth, gripping the skin. When he said, “UP,” Lucifer pulled hard on the whip, ripping and tearing flesh as the whip returned to him. Jesus screamed out in agony; muscle spasms shot through His legs and caused them to do stationary running for a brief moment. This caused the executioners to begin laughing out loud because of how funny it looked. Sadly though, this whip strike ripped the right side of His mouth open, all the way to the end of Jesus’ back jaw. His mouth was now seriously disfigured and spouting more blood. Lucifer tried to repeat and duplicate this combination strike to recreate the same effect (practically destroying the lip area), but failed each time.

As you examine His mouth, the lips that help to cover the teeth area are all ripped up from the facial beating. His front and side teeth are clearly visible but coated with blood. Both upper and lower groups cling together when the whip strikes His weak body. A sign on the wall says: His mouth opened wide just before another strike so that He could breathe. It was the only area of His body that appeared as a large hole used for serious breathing and loud bursts of screaming. Blood seems to have been pouring into it when inhaling (choking Him at times) to breathe and supply enough oxygen for the next loud outburst.

Behind the blood, as stated on a sign nearby, parts of His face, neck, shoulders, hands (from the fingers to the shoulders), chest, stomach, back, hips, and legs that were not seriously torn open, were ripped up and looked like a large body of grater blades or an entire “garden” of small ruffles mingled with lots of blood. Fleshy, bloody ruffle or grater blade scene was all over Jesus’ body. No area was spared. His entire body was torn up. Jesus’ fingers were all stretched out straight like claws from the pain that was felt.

As you examine His left side, just above His lower rib cage, you will notice a gruesome, butchery scene. On this exhibit, it is presently the only area on His body that has no blood. This is simply because of this frozen exhibition one second after Lucifer’s whip struck the area. This is so that you can see and imagine the horror scene that lies behind the bleeding all over His body. As you look inside the wound, the yellow, orange, and white colors are his flesh, fat, and muscle tissues. Those white things running horizontally are His rib cage bones that are visible. (Psalm 22:17, 34:20) When this frozen moment restores to the actual event, blood will begin to cover the area. Even though He should have naturally been dead long before the beating ended, all of this happened prior to Him going to Calvary (Golgotha).

As we examine His lower body, we terrifyingly notice something seriously missing: His penis and testicle are no longer there (just four veins hanging and dripping blood). They were ripped off during the intense beating. They were believed to be washed away and fell on Judas' sandals the moment he opened the "door" to the torture chamber. (Lev. 4:7, 18) He did this to get a glimpse of what they were really doing to Jesus as the wall sign stated. (For more on this, read the section called: "Judas Final Hours on Earth Revealed," in the document called, "The Judgment of Judas Iscariot," found at: www.apublicviewing.com)

A sign above the exhibit that is not actually a part of the scene says:

"Behold, this is your GOD! Look carefully and consider: I endured it to save YOU! If I had used my power and authority to stop it, I would have lost you FOREVER!"

Finally, as we prepare to leave this ugly place and step back to take one final glimpse at the disturbingly revealing exhibit, thoughts uncontrollably and tearfully crowd our minds as though they came from someone else (everyone later admitted to this) that said: This...is...God!? He did this...for...me!?

As we began to exit this awful torture and slaughtering chamber, another sign at the exit door reads: Now go into all the world and tell everyone what Lucifer did to Me. I endured it and held on tight to the only way possible of saving YOU! All sins (imaginable and unimaginable) are now paid off in full. But you must accept "The Pardon Agreement" or the "Paid In Full" bill. Take one as you exit (found at the end of this book). Read the contract contents carefully, and sign it if you seriously accept the written agreement, and follow the instructions to validate the pardon.

A brochure called, "His Visage Marred More Than Any Man: Isaiah 52:14," is handed to us as we leave the premises. It reads: Men have seemingly over decades produced (in the form of plays and movies) a light form of torturing scenes, making it out to be puzzling as to why Jesus went through such great mental agony to avoid and escape the suffering, the shame, and ultimately, death. (Luke 22:44) It is obvious that the evil one who did most of the beating was/is behind many of these "cheap" crucifixion presentations.

Now therefore, alongside all of our crucifix depiction displays (seen everywhere), let us mentally glass-box this three-inches-deep bloody scene for an exhibition view, so that the world can see and know what great suffering our God endured from the hands of Lucifer, to save all of us from the pits of Hell and the Lake of Fire.

There were many back-and-forth deletions, additions, and changes made between this writer and the artist to produce the above (free-handed, non-digital) photo presentation of what Jesus Christ looked like during the beating. However, even though the picture representation is not quite exactly what the body looked like, the above exhibition scene came close. Attempts will be made sometime later to modify and adjust bits and pieces of definition details to achieve the correct display depiction based on all the descriptions mentioned earlier.

Jesus Was Unrecognizable

Imagine, someone who could not die and had to endure this brutally intense, unbearable, torture slaughtering punishment. He had to have been “ripped to pieces,” so to speak, from His arch-enemies, Lucifer, and his wicked warlords.

Now, after reading the section called, “What? A second wave of beating?” earlier, there are five places in scripture (maybe more) to prove Jesus was unrecognizable. Because He was so heavily disfigured, He was only recognizable by the following:

(a) By His voice: No one else called Mary the way Jesus did. When He said, “Mary,” she immediately recognized that voice. “...when...she turned herself back and saw Jesus standing, and knew not that it was Jesus...Jesus saith unto her, Mary. She turned herself, and saith unto him, Rabboni; which is to say, Master.” (John 20:14-16)

(b) By appearing in their midst when all the doors were locked: Because of their fear of the Jews, the disciples locked all the doors (locked themselves up), and everyone knew all those who were present. Suddenly, from nowhere and in the midst of them, Jesus appeared and said, “Peace be unto you.” The disciples, no doubt, almost wet their clothes and jumped out of their skins, so to speak, because of the sudden appearance. Even though this was sufficient evidence that He was alive, to further prove Himself to them, He quickly showed them his hands and side where He was pierced. After they saw these wounds, “...Then were the disciples glad...” Notice the word, “then” in John 20:19.

(c) By showing His hands and side (John 20:19-20): Thomas, not recognizing Him, had to hold His hands and examine them. He also thrust his finger into Jesus’ side before he was convinced He was Jesus. (John 20:27)

(d) By performing a miracle: (John 21:4-7 and John 21:12 said, “...none of the disciples durst ask him, Who art thou?” Knowing that it was the Lord.) Because of the miracle just performed, one that was only performed by Jesus, which He had done before, none of them were bold enough to ask Him, “Who art thou?” They were convinced by the miracle, that He had to have been Jesus because this very same miracle was performed by Him before. Thus, the statement in the text said, "...knowing that it was the Lord." This simply meant that it had to have been Jesus because no one else could perform such a miracle.

(e) By mannerism, unique gesture, body language, and habits (Luke 24:13-29, 30-31): Because they did not recognize Him on the road to Emmaus by His appearance, and because Jesus hid His mannerism, uniqueness, and disguised His voice, they did not recognize Him until He did what He did in verse 30: "...he took bread, and blessed it, and brake, and gave to them." They immediately recognized this gesture. They had seen it before. The Bible used the statement, "their eyes were opened," meaning, their hearts, minds, and understanding were open and not the actual eyes because they were always open as they traveled. They then recognized Him because (and not until) He allowed His mannerisms, unique gestures, body language, and habits to be unveiled before them. (Later, He also proved He was no ghost by showing His disciples that He was physical like they were at Luke 24:39.)

God continued speaking: "I knew what Lucifer's strategic plans were, and that was to break My will at all costs. He was not interested in what I could have done to him because, if he had broken My will, he would have won this battle. Unfortunately for Lucifer, his plan A, did not work, so they stopped beating Me. They untied My hands, and I fell hard on the ground. They turned Me over but held My head up by pulling on My hair so as not to drown Me in my own blood (as they thought, but even this could not have killed Me). I was there, lying on My back in My own blood with My face above the blood surface just so that I could breathe; fighting to breathe in the condition I was in.

Moments later, after trying to get rid of the blood, they picked Me up and threw buckets of water on My body to help remove the blood and evidence of intense beating. I screamed and screamed and screamed! Salt!

On a LIVING, and very much alive sacrifice! (Rom. 12:1) It was like FIRE!!! Water with contents of salt thrown onto and into My body with very huge, deep, and opened wounds was excruciatingly painful." (Lev. 1:9, 13, 2:13, Num. 18:19, Eze. 43:24, Mark 9:49)

Jesus' Blood was Alive and had Healing Powers

As a result of His blood, the restoration of muscle, fat, flesh, and skin tissues began amending themselves after the beating was stopped. His body's blood clotting functions began causing the bleeding to diminish by mending all of the opened wounds. They continued working perfectly, and it was not long before the intense bleeding decreased. Large chunks of flesh and other body parts that were ripped away began slowly restoring themselves. Unfortunately, the process stopped because of the crucifixion and His death.

(Demon-possessed executioners brutalized Jesus before His final appearance with Pilate and practically slaughtered Him after He was released to the chief priests and elders of the people. All of this happened before He went to Calvary.)

No one knew at the time the power that existed or was contained in His blood. (The New Testament was not yet written, so there were no clues.) All physical healing power was in that blood. That blood had living power; it could never die. It could never spoil, decay, or dry up. The body died (James 2:26) but could not decay or see corruption (Psalm 16:10, Acts 2:27, 31, 13:35-37) because the blood was still alive within, even though it was laid in the tomb. It was God's blood and not man's. Jesus was born not by the will of man but by God. (John 1:13) God's blood flowed through Jesus' veins.

Power was truly in that blood, but because the executioners were oblivious to this, they allowed the spilled blood to be poured into the ground, and it disappeared. They were only thinking about covering up all signs of the brutal beating. ¹All of them noticed later a strange transformation to their feet because they were walking with their sandals in the blood: their feet were youthfully different from the rest of the body. Little did they know that their sandals never decayed, but are presently buried somewhere underneath rubbles.

That blood had eternal healing powers. (Imagine what blood transfusion could have done had they known?) That blood had more in it than Lucifer could have ever imagined. If only those who beat Him knew how precious it was, they would have bottled it for future use; but they were too evil to know because of their evil intentions. Lucifer was so focused on destroying Jesus that he did not give any thought to how His powerful blood could have worked in his best interest. He was totally unaware of the power that exists in it. If he had known, with the large amount available, he would have used it to his advantage on earth.

¹It was so powerful until one of the men who helped to take Jesus off the cross, had a very visible long and ugly permanent scar on his arm from an accident that had happened years earlier. Some of Jesus' blood got onto his arms in the process, and the scar disappeared. He never noticed it until two days later when a friend asked him about it. He was shocked and surprised that it had disappeared and was no longer there. It was there for many years, and now it was gone. It had to have been a recent event that removed it because, as he recalled, it was there a week before noticing it missing.

¹These thoughts are not in scripture but mysteriously came to mind as this section was being written.

“Earlier, Lucifer’s plan B was crucifixion if beating did not work. It was a very brutal and painful form of execution that made it almost impossible to breathe. Breathing was painful and almost impossible as time lingered on. Victims would beg the executioners to die but are usually left alone to experience a slow and painful death. This method usually drives its victims insane if they refuse to follow instructions or cooperate.

There were many other forms of execution, like hanging, piercing the heart through with a sword, beheading (or trying to), burning to the stake, feeding to the lions, (etc.), but none of them was designed to break the will. These methods would have convinced the crowd that I was no ordinary man; I could not die from them. Satan, therefore, avoided using them because, in his mind, they might not have worked, thus converting many of the spectators. He needed Me to remain alive to break My will. Also, he was unaware that Psalm 34:20 and John 19:36 were being fulfilled and were written and applied to Me.”

Lucifer needed Jesus alive to accomplish his challenge. Even though a perfect person cannot die, but must first fall into sin, and then die. Hence, he must first get Jesus to sin. (Ezekiel 18:4, Romans 6:23) He knew that suffocating by hanging may not have worked, nor a pierced heart (a hole in the heart would have quickly mended itself). Jesus could have been set ablaze with fire, badly burned to a stake, to the color of charcoals as with burnt sacrifices and offerings, and yet, consciously and physically, still alive. The fire could not have attacked the blood that flowed through His veins. His blood would have eventually restored the skin tissues and hair. Beheading could not have worked. (It would have left very deep, slice-cuts around His neck that would turn into scars because His bones could not be broken. Hence, His head could not be severed, and the veins would have reconnected themselves). Feeding to hungry lions? Their instincts would have turned them all away from Him, wanting nothing to do with this “meal.”

“Crucifixion was one of the most brutal slow-death tortures invented by demons that was successful every time. If the victim refuses to talk or cooperate as time progresses, the intense pain and complexity of breathing send the victim insane just before their death. The impact of this torture was focused on making victims’ breathing complicated, so much so, that it caused them to lose their sanity. Their thinking and brain patterns are forced to modify because of the lingering and intense pain crucifixion creates. No one survived this form of torture. It was successful every time. It broke all of its victim's will.

Thus, the fiercely brutal torture did not stop with the beating, because I also had to endure the cross; being nailed to it at Calvary. They tied a cloth around my face to hide the facial damage, which covered My missing ears, damaged nose, and disfigured mouth area only. As they started to lead Me on the pathway to be crucified, there was a long trail of blood from where I was beaten to Calvary so that all the people saw the serious blood loss on how badly they beat Me. Nevertheless, this did not bring about any form of compassion among many of them; they just wanted Me dead.

They stood afar off, a good distance, as they mocked away at Me; where they did not seemingly, evidently, or clearly see My ripped-up body. I was properly clothed in My own raiment (Matt. 27:31) as they assisted Me to Golgotha, which hid most of My torn-up appearance.”

Who was the “he” in John 19:17? Was “he” Simon or Jesus Himself? Did Jesus bear (or carry) His cross part of the way (as seen in plays and movie productions), or did He carry it at all? After being torn and ripped up from the beating, do you think He instantly had the physical strength to do so (2 Cor. 13:4), or did Simon take it all the way for Him? Compare the above verse with the word “bear” in Matt. 27:32.

Also, He painfully and weakly mumbled what He said in Luke 23:28-31, where perhaps no one hardly heard Him, only that the scripture may be written, or the statement be included in His written Word: The New Testament. His disciples all abandoned Him except for John, the only disciple, along with His mother and others who saw His seriously damaged body.

“Some of them, including the soldiers, however, were astonished at Me because My body was so heavily damaged; more than any man. Neither anyone before Me nor anyone after Me; nor anyone they have seen whose body was ruined like Mine. (Isaiah 52:14) In just over three short years, Israel's entire economy eroded because of Me, they claimed.

Imagine another three years? Because of all the healing I did, many of them who were physicians, undertakers (body-preparers and grave-diggers), caregivers, and owners of caretaking-inns (hospitals), smiths, silversmiths, carpenters, craftsmen, etc., went out of business and their business failures trickled down, affecting many others.”

Log on to: www.apublicviewing.com, for more information. Read the section called, “Israel's failing economy that was caused by all the miracles Jesus was doing and the message He was proclaiming?” found in the document called, “The Judgment of Judas Iscariot.” “Previously, crucifixion was an excellent plan B strategy that spread in the minds and hearts of the chief priests, scribes, Pharisees, and elders of the people. Demons had moved swiftly amongst the crowd to spread the execution method. When Pilate asked, ‘What shall I do then with Jesus which is called Christ?’ (Matthew 27:22), the successful response demons got the crowd to shout out loud was, crucify him! Crucify him!

My love for humanity was greater, which was really one of the reasons why I remain there silently relentless.

When My Father had forsaken Me, I knew then I had become sin. This was when the sins of the whole world were all paid for in full. (The suffering and the amount of blood lost from the bleeding were enough.) Then and only then was the punishment for sins of the whole world, accepted by Him and not before. This was when I cried out, ‘My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?’ (Matthew 27:46, Mark 15:34)

As I hang there from the pain and suffering of the cross, in Lucifer's mind something seems to be confusingly wrong. Jesus cried out, ‘My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?’ and it appeared as though He had mistakenly taken the vinegar, thinking it was water when He cried out, ‘I thirst!’ Before, this never happened. Why did the Father forsake Him? And secondly, He was always aware of His surroundings and what was before Him. But now, He was seemingly unaware and making mistakes. One who is perfect cannot make mistakes, he thought. (Matthew 27:34) Lucifer almost at this point shouted out in victory but reserved the excitement for possibly more clues. He was unaware that Psalm 69:21 was also being fulfilled.

However, Lucifer's plan B failed to break My will (because of what I said in Luke 23:34) and did not work. But the moment I allowed My Spirit to leave My body, a demon who was assigned to record every spirit designated on the pathway to Hell in the compartment of the condemned (to fully recognize who they really were), came and abruptly interrupted Lucifer's thoughts and quickly told him the shocking news: 'Jesus went to Hell; in the compartment of the condemned!' (Psalm 16:10, Acts 2:27, 31, Ephesians 4:9) Lucifer echoed out loud and said: 'Nooooo!!!' (as though he did not believe it) He was stunned! But after a brief moment, giving it some deep thought, he laughed out loud along with his evil warlords, thinking that something seriously went wrong. Jesus mistakenly sinned, they all thought, because He died. (Ezekiel 18:4) We won, he shouted. We won! The universe is ours! We won! Crucifixion worked! In Lucifer's mind, there was no way out of Hell without God illegally breaking His own law, which was not His character. (As believed by him, He would have ceased being God if He had.) Consequently, it creates a great occasion to blaspheme and accuse Him. According to Lucifer, God would now have to reverse all punishments targeted at him and his evil warlords, including those who were already bound in 'everlasting chains under darkness unto the judgment of the great day.' (Jude 6) So then, they began celebrating. They celebrated victory!!

Nevertheless, little did they know what began happening in that dreaded place. Hell, suddenly awoke! It became alive! It began struggling! A trespassing law or rule was broken.

During the celebration, Lucifer suddenly stopped, and along with him, the music stopped. Thoughts flooded his mind; he suddenly remembered what I said, that I would die and on the third day, rise again. (Matthew 16:21) He then quickly went into action again and instructed demons to approach the leaders of the people, convincing them to go to Pilate and persuade him to secure the tomb and the body of Jesus Christ where they had laid Him.

Pilate posted many of his best and top soldiers at the tomb to watch it until the fourth day. Lucifer began thinking that what I meant by rising from the dead on the third day was that the disciples would steal My body and began spreading rumors that I had been raised from the dead. Because, in his mind, he knew there was no way out of Hell. He wanted to ensure that all bases (possible incidents) were covered.

To add to My unimaginable, horrific, torturing experience that made matters worse, all sinners were cast into the bottomless pit called, Hell. Hell and the Lake of Fire were created for them (The devil and his angels ONLY! Matthew 25:41, John 8:41-44, Rev. 12:9). Persons whose sins were forgiven were prohibited. They were sealed and forbidden there. This was a law built into Hell's instruction covenant code when I created it. (Today this would be called, Hell's DNA). Lucifer was unaware of this.

Even though I went there, redemption was truly FINISHED and COMPLETED at the cross; (no more to be repeated; nothing else to be added, paid for, performed, or fulfilled). What remains are just the aftermath and consequences of righteousness versus unrighteousness. (Hence, I had to '...Suffer it to be so...for thus it cometh us to fulfil all righteousness.' Matthew 3:15)

I became sin (or I took on the sins of the whole world) and had to go there. (2 Corinthians 5:21) I was screaming like you; screaming out My Father's name and falling endlessly into the dark abyss with no way out (except to use my own Power at will). The fiery flames engulfed Me. I screamed at the top of My voice. Hell shook and vibrated violently because of Me. (Psalm 18:4-6) A rule was broken because I did not belong there; even the rule of sin and death was broken. (Romans 6:23). Hell was for sinners. Truthfully, I was without sin. (1 Peter 2:21-22, 1 John 3:5) It was a place created for the devil and his angels

ONLY. I was not one of his angels. (Matt. 25:41, Rev. 12:9)

Therefore, everything went wrong inside its belly. It suddenly, in a sense, woke up and became alive because of the broken rule. Something went wrong, and it began the initial process of wanting to vomit. The urges began getting stronger and stronger until Hell couldn't chain Me down anymore; the urges could no longer stomach Me. Hell, uncontrollably and violently threw up (or vomited), and with it, I was released. 'For as Jonas was three days and three nights in the whale's belly; so shall the Son of man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth.' (Mat. 12:40)

"...I cried by reason of mine affliction unto the LORD, and he heard me; out of the belly of hell cried I, and thou heardest my voice. For thou hadst cast me into the deep, in the midst of the seas; and the floods compassed me about: all thy billows and thy waves passed over me. Then I said, I am cast out of thy sight; yet I will look again toward thy holy temple. The waters compassed me about, even to the soul: the depth closed me round about, the weeds were wrapped about my head. I went down to the bottoms of the mountains; the earth with her bars was about me for ever: yet hast thou brought up my life from corruption, O LORD my God." (Jonah 2:2-6, Acts 2:27, 31) "And the LORD spake unto the fish, and it vomited out Jonah upon the dry land." (Jonah 2:1-10, Psalms 16:10, Matthew 12:40, 16:4, Acts 2:24)

"When the condemn compartment of Hell released Me (or after the execution of Hell's trespassing verdict was carried out) by vomiting Me out, I crossed over the great gulf that was fixed (Luke 16:26) into what was called, Paradise (Luke 23:43), where Abraham and all the Old Testament saints were, including the thief on the cross who died alongside of Me. I reconnected with My Father, who had forsaken Me and afterward, I raised Myself from the grave along with all the others who were there." (Matt. 27:52-53) He willfully laid Himself down in death and so He ("now!" using His Authority and Power) raised Himself up from death and the grave to the newness of life. (Rom. 6:4-11, 10:9-10)

"If I had intervened in the entire process by using my Power and Authority, I would have lost all of My precious children, who were patiently waiting for and depending on Me to set them free from the prison of sin and death. I would have lost them all, forever!"

God tearfully said, "Jeffery, you will NEVER imagine the intense pain and suffering of that: having the POWER to stop it all, but did not use it because I wanted to save you and the world from Hell and the Lake of Fire...

I knew the power, strength, and pull sin had on your life and, therefore, suffered, bled, and died to pay your sin debt. This includes ALL sinful (or evil) acts committed by the whole world. In other words, everyone, with no exceptions. As a result, the whole world goes sin-FREE: ALL those on earth who wanted this freedom. You originally wanted your own way, and not My way. So therefore, for you to have received this freedom arrangement (The Pardon Agreement) release from the shackles of sin (ALL of your sinful acts from start to finish) and its penalty, you had to request and accept it for yourself. You had to request and accept it from Me to have it work for you.

Yes! I allowed all sinners and their evil acts, including yours, to go sin-FREE. I forgave everyone with no eternal penalties; but it too would NOT be just, neither would it be fair to give someone something they don't truly want. (Matt. 7:9-11, Luke 11:11-13) For this reason, you had to ask for it if you truly wanted it. You had to seek for it to truly find it. You had to request it from Me to have it work for you. (Mat. 7:7, Luke 11:9-10) How else then could a lawfully just, rightfully faithful, and an absolutely blameless person, (with a righteously perfect balance) fix your problem, if you truly didn't want it to be fixed?"

Excerpts above were taken from an unpublished work called, A Breathtaking View Inside the Corporate World of GOD. Additionally, they were not written from a vision or a dream, and there was no (audible) direct instructions from God. But they mysteriously came to mind as this section was being written.

The Pardon Agreement

²...This agreement is not something you can work for. It cannot be earned by what you do. This agreement cannot be purchased or paid for: I paid it already. This Pardon Agreement is FREE for the asking. “Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you: For every one that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened.” (Matthew 7:7, Luke 11:9-10)

My Pardon Agreement is a “NOW!” contract or covenant deal between both of us: Me and you! It cannot wait until you perform a self-cleaning exercise. If you try doing that first before accepting My Pardon Agreement, you WILL never pull it off. Remember that you are fighting powerful evil forces who know how to break you apart and destroy every effort you make trying to get close to Me. For this reason, I will do the self-cleaning for you. I want you to come to Me just the way you are and let Me do your self-cleaning exercise. “Come now, and let us reason together...though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool.” (Isaiah 1:18) “...behold, now is the accepted time; now is the day of salvation.” (2 Corinthians 6:2) “...To day if ye will hear...harden not your hearts...” (Hebrews 3:15) Boast not thyself of to morrow; for thou knowest not what a day may bring forth. (Proverbs 27:1)

I love you so much (John 3:16) and want you to want Me. I am determined to go to great lengths to get you, if you really want Me. Because of your sins, you have to come to Me on your own free will. I will not make you come, even though I desperately want to. Please come to Me. I tearfully and passionately want you to come! To show you how desperate I want you, I am willing to change your desires (your will). Just ask Me to do it, and I will give you the desire to want Me so that you can come to Me. Many people claim that God cannot be desperate. If I wasn't, I would not have gone to Calvary for you. I am desperate for you and desperately want you to want Me. Please come! Come so that I can start and complete The Pardon Agreement process for you. “Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto you souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.” (Matthew 11:28-30)

I just want you to also know upfront that I am a jealous God; so much so until My name is Jealous. (Ex. 20:5, 34:14) It is a part of My nature or character that cannot be changed or altered, and therefore, you must accept this fact when approaching Me...

²The “...Pardon Agreement” above was not written from a vision, a dream, neither was it direct instructions from God. But it mysteriously came to mind as this section was being written.

“I have long time holden my peace; I have been still, and refrained myself: now will I cry like a travailing woman; I will destroy and devour at once.”
(Isaiah 42:14)

What did Jesus meant by saying, "I am in the Father, and the Father in me" after saying, "I and my Father are one" (not "one-person," but "one")? Obviously, the Son and the Father are two separate persons and therefore "one-person" could not have been meant here. This is because humanity speaking, it would make no sense.

Jesus said to His disciples: "Have not I chosen you twelve, and one of you is a devil?" (John 6:70)

Did Jesus literally meant this or was it just a figure of speech? A possible answer to this question opens up a door to a world of hidden mysteries.

THE PREVIEW "And they shall bring all your sacrifices for an offering unto the LORD out of all nations upon horses, and in chariots, and in litters, and upon mules, and upon swift beasts, to my holy mountain Jerusalem, saith the LORD, as the children of Israel bring an offering in a clean vessel into the house of the LORD. And I will also take of them for priests and for Levites, saith the LORD. For as the new heavens and the new earth, which I will make, shall remain before me, saith the LORD, so shall your seed and your name remain. And it shall come to pass, that from one new moon to another, and from one Sabbath to another, shall all flesh come to worship before me, saith the LORD. And they shall go forth, and look upon the carcasses of the men that have transgressed against me: for their worm shall not die, neither shall their fire be quenched, and they shall be an abomination unto all flesh." He is GOD! Here are IRREFUTABLE, scriptural, PROOF TEXTS, from Genesis to Revelation to prove that He was and is God, along with notes.

There are many verses in scripture that prove Jesus was and is God based on what He said, others said and the works and miracles He did.

Why then did Jesus not clearly, plainly and publicly say He was GOD?

If He had convincingly did, along with proof, then the people's perception, expectation, response and demand of Him would have been different. He then would NOT have been crucified and we all would still be in our sins and died as a result.
